Proceeds To Be Donated

Public Relations Chairman Alton Esselment, of Branch 164 Canadian Legion, has announced their will be two progressive hoss parties in the Legion Auditorium during April. Both are on Saturday afternoons at 2 p.m., and proceeds will be turned over to the local Canadian Cancer Campaign. Dates to remember are the 8th and 22nd.

Arrangements have also been made for the mixed couples (hoss), who play monthly, and donate profits to the West Haldimand Hospital, to have their final get-together of the season in the local Legion Auditorium, during April.

Six-Eight Club Meets

Mrs. Jessie Sheppard was hostess for the March meeting of the Six-Eight Club. Roll Call was answered with Signs of Spring.

Various reports were presented and appointments were made: visitors, Dorothy Quanbury and Edna Smith; lunch, Jane Romkes and Cathie Hagan. Two topics were presented by Evelyn Allison. They were "The rooster who served the Lord" and "Her majesty from Ontario." A contest was conducted by Dorothy Quanbury in the absence of Vera Hagan, with the prize winner being Reta Ebert. Evelyn Allison offered her home for the April meeting. Jean Yule thanked the hostess.
