Hoss Party Proceeds To Cancer Society

Seventeen tables of progressive hoss players, enjoyed a most entertaining afternoon at the Canadian Legion Auditorium on Saturday, April 8. Public Relations chairman of the Legion, Alton Esselment started the activities at 2 p.m. when visitors were present from Cayuga, Selkirk, Jarvis, Springvale, and the surrounding area. A total of $41.50 was taken in at the door by ticket receptionist, Madeline Haley, and turned over to the local Cancer Society Campaign.

Door prize of $5., compliments of Doug Thomas, (Thomas Real Estate), was won by Lucky Number holder, Ruby Trousdale. Other winners were, Ladies High - Mrs. Edith Joyce, Ladies Second - Mrs. Olga McBurney; Mens High - Mac Smith; Mens Second - Ed. Eastes.

Handcraft made and donated by Harry Curr, was won by Ken Smith for the most hosses obtained during the afternoon (4).

Other prizes for the afternoon were compliments of Mrs. Ethel McNeilly (an artificial flower arrangement); two pounds of cheese, and two pounds of butter from William Walsh; $5 donated by Edgar Waldbrook. Assisting during the afternoon were Clarence Jackson and Jim Stinson.

Lunch was donated by Marie and Ted Brooks, and was served by Edith Fincham and Anne Major. Announcement was made regarding the next Saturday afternoon hoss party to be held in the Legion Auditorium April 22 at 2 p.m. Once again all proceeds will be given to the April Cancer Society Campaign.

Fire Department Social Evening

On Monday, April 3, Fire Chief William McClarty and members of the Hagersville Volunteer Fire Department, enjoyed a social evening. They had as their guests, the stand-by crew, who volunteer their valuable assistance when the regular firemen are out-of-town at their annual banquet. The early part of the evening was spent in playing cards, while later the entire group departed to Enzo's Steak House for lunch.

Guides Enrolled

Four Girl Guides entered into Guiding at the IOOF Hall, Hagersville, on March 27. The Girl Guide Company met with Pat Petracca, Ranger leader to enroll the girls. These girls have been prepared for enrolment by their leaders, Captain Mrs. Murray Ryder, and Lieutenant Mrs. Peter Munzar.

Presented to Miss Petracca, were Sylvia Furry, Ann Millett, Lucille Poirier, and Mary Margaret Verwaere. Each girl promised to do her duty to God, the Queen and Country, and to help other people at all times, and to obey Guide Laws.
