

Hospital Auxiliary Holds Annual Meeting

The ninth annual dinner meeting of the Auxiliary to the West Haldimand General Hospital was held in the Jarvis Community Hall, April 5 at 7 p.m.

Mrs. S. Brown, president, welcomed approximately 170 members and guests who sat down to a dinner prepared by the Wesley United Church ladies.

Following dinner Mrs. B. Miller led in an auxiliary sing song from song sheets prepared by Mrs. R. Slack. Mrs. H. Snowden thanked Mrs. Miller and presented her with a bouquet of flowers. Mrs. A. Doyle gave the courtesy to the ladies of Wesley for the meal and service, also the Jarvis Unit for hosting the evening. Mrs. W. Nauman introduced the head table guests and Mrs. Brown then took roll call.

Greetings from head table guests were brought from Mrs. B. Webb who represented the administration and nursing and thanked the ladies for both service and contributions.

Dr. R. G. Hyde, chairman of the board said he was impressed with the annual reports and noted the volunteers added a homey touch in the hospital.

The board appreciates and is proud of the whole hearted efforts and contributions made by the auxiliary, he said. Dr. R. Weylie, chief of medical staff added his thanks and good wishes on behalf of the medical staff, stating that not only do the doctors benefit from equipment placed by the auxiliary, but the community as a whole benefits from these gifts and services. He invited all to attend the annual hospital meeting.

Mrs. J. Becker, new District 4 Chairwoman, brought greetings. She expressed the desire to see the hospital when the occasion presents itself. Mrs. Phelps, District 4 Secretary, accompanied Mrs. Becker.

One minute silence followed by the Auxiliary Prayer in memoriam for Mrs. V. Johnson, Hagersville Unit, was observed.

Mrs. S. Brown conducted the business which included an amendment to the constitution. Thanks were offered to Mrs. B. Ryder, who prepared the annual reports.

The reports conclude another successful year and finds all Units working diligently. The coffee shop had a profitable year thanks to all the volunteer help and paying customers. Mrs. R. Slack added that Mrs. W. J. Heaslip had made 155 "Snowmen" which were sold in the coffee shop at Christmas and appreciation was shown for her efforts. Mrs. B. Munroe, corresponding secretary, read a letter from the board of directors, thanking Mrs. Brown for her valued assistance during her term on the board.

Election of officers for the coming year then took place with installation by Mrs. J. Becker of Grimsby. Installed were: Mrs. S. Brown, Past President; Mrs. H. I. Snowden, President; Mrs. R. Slack, First Vice President; Mrs. A. Doyle, Second Vice President; Mrs. H. Gowan, Recording Secretary; Mrs. B. Munroe, Corresponding Secretary; Mrs. W. Held, Treasurer; Mrs. H. Bray, Sewing and Pegboard Convener; Mrs. M. Mounk, Public Relations; Mrs. K. Schaus, Library and Records; Mrs. W. Nauman, Volunteer Convener; Mrs. C. Thompson, Assistant Volunteer Convener; Mrs. S. Brown, Mrs. M. Clark, Mrs. H. McBride, Mrs. R. Baigent, Nominating Committee.

Upon retiring as president, Mrs. Brown thanked the Units and executive for their co-operation and the board of directors, administrator, and hospital staff for their help and her family for their support. Mrs. H. Snowden presented Mrs. Brown with the Past President pin and Mrs. Brown then welcomed Mrs. Snowden as President, in turn presenting her with the President's pin.

Taking the chair, Mrs. Snowden announced the coming Spring Luncheon for District 4, the Institute to be held in Barrie in April 25 and 26 and the staff dance invitation.

A highlight of the evening took place when Mrs. J. Becker drew the winning ticket for the $500 draw. The winner, in attendance, was Mrs. Ruth Clark.

Hospital Auxiliary Talent Night was then presented. All six units provided approximately 10 minutes of entertainment which comprised of singing, dancing and skits. The executive will meet May 3 in the board room.
