'Common Sense' Approach May Be Taken-GRCA

Grand River Conservation Authority may be taking a softer line in dealing with residents and businesses a long the Grand River flood zone area as a result of a meeting Friday with Haldimand County the flood area.

general manager, said the authority would be line calculated to where inclined to use "commthe water would rise if any rebuilding of down-new development along an area where some entire downtown sect-Mac Coutts, GRCA, may take place. The zone.

The GRCA recently perty owners are pro-eleased maps of var-testing the regulations, would all be affected achieved by putting in released maps of var-ious a r e a s which claiming they have de-designated flood lines. valued their land in Jan The area from the river some cases made their ority chairman, said will continue its hard observed folldlines and icularly as they affect blow out the dam, put line in preventing any the regional floodline is Dunnville, where the in control structures to actually there. selected development ion is within the flood on sense and discret- a storm of hurricane town Dunnville. The

About 60 Cayuga pro- hospital and a proposed the regulations.

James Bauer, authchannel to the maximum properties valueless, observed floodline is except as parkland. Powell questioned the measures that could be be permitted. The area Powell questioned to alleviate the or to put in diking. Mr. Bauer said the achieved by putting in was certain "if I had zone) I would be keeping in mind that these between the maximum lines at council, part- situation would be to aren't arbitrary lines money in a business or home, it would be prudent to know about these lines," he said.

Mr. Bauer noted that the flood lines represented a real possibility. The danger of a major storm is not a 100 to one shot, he said. Ontario is hit by a

See Page 11, Col. 1

Thursday, August 24, 1972

Energy Board Assures Hearing Must Be Held

CAYUGA (Staff)- Many minister of natural re-Union Gas consumers in sources.

ergy Board.

Haldimand County

Union Gas has proto having their gas ser-vice discontinued. They were also told that early as 1967.

Haldimand, scheduled to Mr. Gloyd said sev- noted that if another have their gas supply eral have complained gas company wants to cut off, are not aware that gas officials misthat the company can- led them into believing not discontinue the ser- they would not receive vice without a hearing compensation unless ever, that the gas lines before the Ontario En- they signed a company would have to come up councillors were told prosed to abandon ap-Friday that Union Gas proximately 110 miles of Dunnville, said the representatives were of gas lines in the county Union Gas notices read using "scare tactics" as being uneconomical. that the gas will be cut to get people to agree Almost 1,000 customers off by Aug. 31.

going to discontinue headed the council service in the area as committee that met in Toronto, said assur- order for the company Reeve Blake Gloyd, ance had been given by of Rainham Township, Mr. Bernier that the made the report to board would decide the council following a cut off date, if any, and meeting two weeks ago also set the compensin Toronto with Leo ation to be paid for Bernier, provincial switching to other fuels.

Financial Study States Texaco May Start Soon omic to operate. If not, then it can be shut down.

the former Harewood Acres in Walpole Township came to light in a report last week. A spokesman is quoted in the Globe and Mail as having stated the construction of the refinery is expected "to start shortly with late 1974 tentatively public relations man-port "landscaping is investment study, and virtually completed and was not a statement engineering and other issued by Texaco. Said Reeve Clayton fined as a detached preparatory work is "When Texaco is Smith, of Seneca Town-building used as an contained in a detailed issued," he said.

The first recent in- investment review predication of action on pared by stockbrokers Texaco's property at Bell, Gouinlock and Co. Ltd., of Toronto. Texaco is planning a $75 million refinery on the 1,300 acre site near Nanticoke, states the report.

When contacted by phone in Montreal by The Record, assistant estimated as the com-pletion date." ager Hugh Quetton, noted that the state-According to the re- ment was made in the

come in, there is nothing to stop them. Mr. Gloyd noted, howto energy board specifications.

Reeve Keith Richardson, of Dunn Township, Union Gas knew it was Mr. Gloyd, who said that 100 per cent of the customers would sign off in to discontinue without a hearing.

Mr. Gloyd said the minister had made two points when the committee visited him. One was that the Union Gas is not a public utility as many people seem to think and that each gas line must be econ-

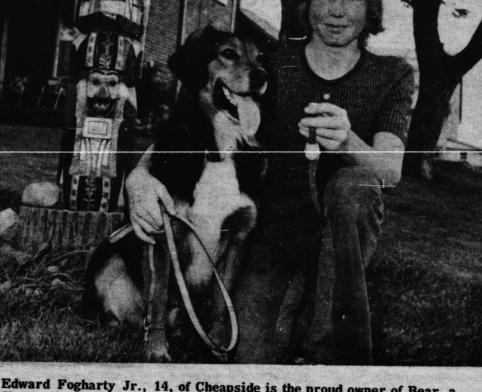

Mr. Richardson said the only way to prevent the pull-out would be to prove that the lines are economical to operate. Union Gas has contended it would cost them about $2 million to put Warden John Mc- garding the issue, the Coombs said "It looks WTCAA states that the like we're one year too "township fathers are late to try and hold at great pains to give this."

company's intent back summer cottage."
in 1967. Resort cottage is roceeding."

ready to start, there ship, "That would have occasional resort for the statements were will be a release defeated their recreation...by one purpose."

Edward Fogharty Jr., 14, of Cheapside is the proud owner of Bear, a Shepherd-Collie-Husky cross, who last Sunday demonstrated his prowess as a swimmer by winning the Gaines Dog Swim, heavy-weight (over 45 pounds) class at the Canadian National Exhibition. This is the third time three-year-old Bear has been entered in the 300 yard swimming event. Last year he placed second. The dog "who just loves to swim" picked up a new wrist watch for his owner and a new leash for himself. (Staff Photo)

Cottagers Reacting Strongly To Letter From Council

acting strongly to a letter sent to them by Walpole Township regarding a proposed by-law change.

Cottagers will have a chance this Friday night to voice their opinions at a meeting in Nant-icoke called by the Township Council.

Council is proposing to change the definition of summer cottage to resort cottage.

The Walpole Township Citizen's Action Association said it was "most disturbed" at the contents of the ceived this week re-Mr. Gloyd wondered sort cottage (in the why the county hadn't notice)...but they have been notified of the omitted the definition of the county hadn't notice)...but they have been notified of the omitted the definition of the county hadn't notice)...but they have been notified of the omitted the definition of the county hadn't notice)...but they have been notified of the omitted the definition of the county hadn't notice)...but they have been notified of the omitted the definition of the county hadn't notice)...but they have been notified of the omitted the definition of the county hadn't notice)...but they have been notified of the omitted the definition of the county hadn't notice)...but they have been notified of the omitted the definition of the county hadn't notice)...but they have been notified of the omitted the definition of the county hadn't notice)...but they have been notified of the county hadn't notice)...but they have been notified of the county hadn't notice)...but they have county had not county h

> Resort cottage is defamily, but not occup-cottage owners are re- a principal residence." endar year," followed The summer cottage by a description of definition is for a what constitutes a sumseparate building des- mer cottage.

igned and constructed for human habitation during only the six fringement of human warm weather months, from April to Septem-

Charles Cox Named Director of WTCAA

R.R. 2 Nanticoke, has in 1956 until his rebeen named as the signation in 1967 when tenth director of the he retired to his lake-Walpole Township Cit- front home in Walpole.

were elected at the Nanticoke.

for a period. Mr. Cox was also Mr. Cave was a clerk-treasurer of the WTCAA director last township for 11 years, year.

Charles Cox Sr., of taking over the post

izens Action Associa- The WTCAA direct-In a letter to the He was elected at a permanent auditor in the lines back in energy editor, one of four re- director's meeting last the person of Herb Friday. Nine directors Cave, also of R.R. 2

WTCAA annual meeting Mr. Cave moved to last month, leaving the the area in 1966, having tenth position vacant. lived prior to that in Mr. Cox has been Hamilton. He was actwas the reeve of the holding a variety of of-township for 14 years fices including that of and also deputy reeve president and for 17 years was treasurer.