"At our last meeting, on Dec. 7, there were people all the way from 10 years old to nearly 80, and everyone there contributed to the discussion. But I guess you should really be about 16 before you pay for a membership." "In the meantime, you can certainly go to the puppet show on Dec. 28, and to the art club when it starts. Your little brother Johnny goes to the Story Hour every Wednesday morning. So I guess you both belong already in a way." New executive for the Hagersville Library Guild: President, Martha Allen; Secretary, Kathleen Schaeffer; Treasurer, Dave Banks; Publicity, Pat Mackereith; Directors: Paula Ellerington, Karen King, Maria Franca Whitman. "Of course, they couldn't have done anything without a lot of help from all the nice men in the Lions Club, and Rev. Don from the church, and a lot of people who are giving money to help pay for the work that changed the old glove factory into the new Davison Centre. But it was the Library Guild that first believed that it could really happen, and made other people believe it too." "Can I join the Library Guild, Mommy?" Hagersville Library Guild

"Mommy, why is the library guilty?"
"Susie, what are you talking about? The library isn't guilty... oh, I know, you must mean the Library Guild, not guilt."
"Well, what is a Library Guild?"
"Susie, the Library Guild is a small group with big ideas about what the library can do for everyone. Because these people believe in the library, and think that a library can be a lot of fun, as well as important to the town, that's why Hagersville has a beautiful new library building. It was the Library Guild that started the whole idea."

"Of course, they couldn't have done anything without a lot of help from all the nice men in the Lions Club, and Rev. Don from the church, and a lot of people who are giving money to help pay for the work that changed the old glove factory into the new Davison Centre. But it was the Library Guild that first believed that it could really happen, and made other people believe it too."

"Can I join the Library Guild, Mommy?"

The youngest and last survivor of a family of 10, his parents were the late James and Emily Hodges Miller of Conc. 4 Walpole where the deceased was born in 1891 and where he resided until retiring from active life when he moved to Port Dover.

His wife, the former Mary Katharine Carpenter, survives.
A devoted Oddfellow, Mr. Miller was a member of Jarvis Lodge since 1916, was Noble Grand in 1919 and member of Ridgely Encampment No. 52 as well as an Honorary member of Silver Star Rebecca Lodge in Jarvis.

Rev. Neil MacDonald of the Presbyterian Church, Port Dover was assisted by Rev. G. Taylor-Munro of Knox Church Jarvis conducted the funeral services from Thompson Funeral Home Port Dover on Saturday Dec. 9 at 3.30 p.m. Interment was in Port Dover Cemetery.

I.O.O.F. service was on Friday evening. Pallbearers were Stan Morris, Bill Saunders, Roy Craddock, Ernest Craddock, Roy Doughty and Bob McKnight.

Births

FLYN - Mr. and Mrs. Tom Flyn, (nee Barbara Whitbread) of Baden, Germany, announce the birth of a daughter Nedine, Dec. 12, 1972, a granddaughter for Mr. and Mrs. Albert Whitbread, of Hagersville.

The usual business period included plans for packing Christmas boxes for the boys of Buffalo Lodge at the Boys School. The treasurer's report showed how well we have done financially at our baz-aar last week.

"At our last meeting, on Dec. 7, there were people all the way from 10 years old to nearly 80, and everyone there contributed to the discussion. But I guess you should really be about 16 before you pay for a membership."

"In the meantime, you can certainly go to the puppet show on Dec. 28, and to the art club when it starts. Your little brother Johnny goes to the Story Hour every Wednesday morning. So I guess you both belong already in a way."

New executive for the Hagersville Library Guild: President, Martha Allen; Secretary, Kathleen Schaeffer; Treasurer, Dave Banks; Publicity, Pat Mackereith; Directors: Paula Ellerington, Karen King, Maria Franca Whitman.

Peter Dowling, left, representing the Junior Farmers Club, presents the Junior Farmers' Association Prize of $50 to Ross Gowan, of Jarvis. The prize is awarded to a student who has completed semester 2 of the Bachelor of Science in Agriculture program with good academic standing. The winner must be an active member of the local Junior Farmer Club and have shown responsibility and leadership qualities in student activities.

Garnet UCW

Mrs. Mildred Harrop was hostess for the Garnet U.C.W. Christmas meeting which was held Dec. 8. The rooms glowed with the emblems of Christmas and 23 ladies joined in making this a special evening.

Mrs. Gordon Cherry, president, welcomed everybody and read a poem entitled Christmas Is. After singing a carol, the Lord's Prayer was repeated in unison. Roll call was answered by a verse from Luke 2.

The travelling apron had returned and the lucky winner was Mrs. Earl Phillips. Supply boxes were ready to go and the birthday calendars will soon be on sale. The January meeting will be held in the afternoon. The president closed this part with a Christmas prayer.

Mrs. Harrop also convened the program which expressed the spirit of Christmas. Printed programs were passed so everybody could take part. It could take part. It consisted of a candle lighting service and a beautiful story No Room.

Mrs. Bruce Meehan assisted and all joined in readings, carols and prayer and ended with each lighting a candle from his neighbours. Courtesy remarks were given by Mrs. Glenn Cherry.
