

HAGERSVILLEHighlights*Kinsmen Sponsor
Skating Competition

The Elementary School Skating Competition was once again sponsored by the local Hagersville Kinsmen Club, and was held at the local Arena in conjunction with Winter Carnival Week, in Hagersville.

There was much competition in various phases of skating, speed, relays and races.

Afternoon
UCW

Mrs. Alfred Wilson, president of the Afternoon UCW Group of the Hagersville United Church, presided over the business portion of the meeting on Tuesday Feb. 1, at 2 p.m. There were 17 ladies in attendance, to hear the introduction of the Study Book this year on Africa, which was done by Mrs. Gerald Hyde.

The film, Drumbeat to Africa, was shown by Mrs. Robert Gedy, in which the first portion of the film dealt with the need for communication in Africa today. Later, it depicted some of the radical changes in the African continent in these days of world upsets. Visible changes noted were their clothing, worship services, telegraphy and other modern introductions to their society.

Others assisting Mrs. Hyde on her group were Mrs. Albert Awde, Mrs. Dave Slack and Clara Quance. Announcement was made regarding the Next to New Sale on March 25, and Mrs. Wilson handed out the Dime Cards for the Leprosy Mission.

The group leaders for the new year are, Peggy Hyde, May Slack, Edna Esselment and Shirley Mitchell. One visitor of distinction present at the meeting, was the newly-elected President of the General UCW, Mrs. George Murdoch.
