Orderly Procedures Sought

At a recent Council Meeting of the Six Nations Council at Ohsweken, Coun.

Sidney Henhawk, a newly-elected member, asked council to adopt more orderly and decorous procedures at the council meetings.

After stating his desires to Chief Richard Isaac, the chief replied that it had been tried in the past, but decorum has always lapsed after a meeting or two.

For the remainder of the meeting councillors had to rise before addressing the chair and speaking.

Knox Church Groups

Mrs. Herman Fess entertained the Ladies Aid and W.M.S. of Knox Church on Jan. 4.

The Ladies' Aid was opened by Mrs. Wallace Mitchell. The Hymn "He Leadeth Me" was sung after which Mrs. Mitchell read Psalm 61, followed by prayer. Helen Miller, secretary treasurer, read the minutes, the roll being answered by payment of fees and correspondence. Letters of thanks were read from the organist and caretakers for Christmas gifts from the ladies aid.

Mrs. Lilian Lowes will be flower convener for 1972 and the ladies will share in paying the caretakers as in former years. The splendid work of the custodians was especially mentioned. The offering was received and dedicated. The meeting being closed by the Lords Prayer.

The W.M.S. then convened under the leadership of Mrs. R. A. Miller and Mrs. Fess. The president opened by prayer and the reading of a New Years poem. Mrs. Fess called the roll, which was answered by payment of fees and thoughts pertinent to the New Year.

The minutes showed that 1971 had been a successful year. Following the offering Mrs. Taylor-Munro took charge of the program. Mrs. Fess read Psalm 30, Mrs. Lilian Lowes led in prayer. Mrs. Taylor-Munro read from the study book, an article on the Psalms which dealt with self analysis and the art of living, the importance of maturity and assurance.

David and Saul were quoted. The one, David, working toward the upward trend of the nation while Saul's philosophy was downward - The difference in lives of hate and lives of love.

"Oh Master let me walk with thee" was sung. The president closed with the benediction and Mrs. Taylor-Munro thanked those who helped in any way with this first meeting of the year.

The sale of food was conducted by Frances Law. Mrs. Lillie Miller will be hostess for the February meeting. Program convener is Mrs. R. A. Miller and lunch committee is Mrs. Lloyd Mitchell and Mrs. Herman Fess.

Winter Carnival Finalized

Many participating organizations were represented at a final preparation meeting, held in the Hagersville Legion Auditorium on Thursday evening, Jan. 6.

Chairman of the event is Graham Norval, who states all seems to be in order for the various activities scheduled for Winter Carnival Week, beginning Jan. 24 to 30.

Jarvis UCW

The Annual General Meeting of Jarvis U.C.W. held in the Church Parlour on Dec. 21 at 2 p.m. was called to order by the President, Mrs. Clarence Hayes.

Mrs. Nellie Miller acted as Convener for the Devotional on the theme The Gift of Life. Mrs. Pearl Johnson read the Christmas story from the Scriptures and Mrs. Dave Wilson added more interesting thoughts concerning the theme. Mrs. James Doughty and Mrs. Jack Doughty sang Silent Night.

The meditation period took the form of a candle lighting service with Mrs. George Walker and Mrs. Earl Slater acting as the narrators.

Yearly reports were received from all committees. Money donations were given to capital funds, the church telephone, mission and service fund, the Observer fund, and the leprosy mission.

The ladies voted to have the smorgasbord supper again this year.

The Presbyterian annual meeting will be held in Simcoe on Feb. 14 and Jarvis U.C.W. has been asked to be in charge of registration for both afternoon and evening sessions.

Mrs. James Doughty presented the slate of officers for 1972 and this report was accepted by Rev. Eric Ramrattan.
