IN MEMORIAM

BURGESS - In loving memory of a dear husband, father and grandfather, Lloyd, who passed away Jan. 31, 1969.

Beautiful memory silently kept. Peacefully sleeping. Resting at last. The world's weary troubles and trials are past. In silence he suffered. In patience he bore. Till God called him home. To suffer no more. Lovingly remembered, wife Mary, son Jim and family, daughter Loretta and family.

Many sincere thanks to all relatives, friends and neighbors for cards, flowers and best wishes which made our 40th Anniversary a pleasant and happy occasion. Clayton and Velma Weaver.

We wish to thank Keith, Darla, Tom and Diane Saunders and all those who helped to give us a lovely house-warming party. Raymond and Sandy Robinson.

Mrs. Mary Wardell and family would like to express their sincere thanks to those who were so wonderful and helpful during our recent loss of a dear husband and dear father. Our many thanks to Dr. Marshall and Dr. Chiu and the nurses of 2nd and 4th floor of Norfolk General Hospital. Also special thanks to Thompson Funeral Home, and Rev. Taylor-Munro and family. And to our many friends and relatives who sent flowers and cards. Also special thanks to the Lakeshore Women's Institute of Port Dover for catering at our home after the funeral. We would also like to thank our very kind neighbors for what they did for us.

Mr. McKinnon replaces Mr. Orvil W. Guy, who has served as Vice-Chairman for the past six years. Mr. Guy declined nomination this year principally because of the pressure of work which the position entails. He also feels it will afford him the opportunity to devote more time to the milk producers he represents in the counties of Dundas, Grenville, Leeds and Frontenac.

A dairy farmer from Port Elgin, Mr. McKinnon operates a farm with 60 milking cows and is the elected representative in the counties of Grey, Bruce and Huron.

Prior to the formation of The Ontario Milk Marketing Board in 1965, Mr. Guy served as Chairman of The Ontario Concentrated Milk Producers' Marketing Board and Mr. McKinnon served as Vice-Chairman of that body.

Place To Be If In Jail

NORDEGG, Alta. (CP) - "If you've got to be in jail, this is the place to be."

That was one prisoner's comment about the camp where prisoners and staff live in the deserted remains of a coal-mining town 130 miles southwest of Edmonton.

Started in 1961 on an experimental basis, it is run in connection with Bowden Institute, a provincial jail in central Alberta for youthful offenders.

The average age of prisoners is 23 and most are single with about Grade 8 education. The men are selected from other institutions and go through Bowden before being transferred to the camp site. The town looks like what a ghost town should look-like deserted homes with some shattered window panes, falling porches, but with still visible reminders that people lived there less than 20 years ago.

There have been as many as 100 prisoners, the majority living in what was once the town's boarding house and others at a bush camp. The boarding house has some institutional characteristics but there are no bars on the windows. Donald Hyatt, the deputy superintendent in charge of the camp, says: "We have few discipline problems here... we have few visitors because of the location and the conditions of the roads."

The prisoners are paid 50 cents a day while working around the town or in one of two camps.
