

HAGERSVILLEHighlights*Six-Eight Club Meet

The Six-Eight Club held its January meeting at the home of Dorothy Quabury. President, Kay Swayze, read an appropriate poem for the New Year, followed with roll call and minutes being read of the previous meeting.

Reports of the various committees were given, together with compiling a working program for the coming year. There will be no meeting in February, as plans have been made for a dinner at Enzo's to celebrate the 20th birthday of the club, with the proposed date being February 14.

Mrs. Jessie Sheppard offered to host the March meeting in her home. The mystery prize winner was announced as Vera Hagan. A welcome was given to a new member, Hazel Wellings, and Jessie Sheppard offered thanks to the hostess, as well as the committee for the meeting.

Fisherville Hospital Unit

The Christmas meeting of the Fisherville Unit of the W. H. G. H. A. was held at the home of Mrs. Lorraine Clarke, and opened with all members repeating the Auxiliary Prayer.

A Pegboard Show will be held at the February meeting at the home of Mrs. Jackie Empringham, it was announced. An exchange of Christmas gifts closed the meeting.

Clanbrassil WI

Guests from Mt. Healey W. I. and other District officers were present at the Clanbrassil W. I. New Year meeting in the Oneida Church basement.

The business meeting was opened by President Mrs. Don Richards. Roll call was "Name an oldtimer who left a lasting impression on you".

Extending greetings was Mrs. William Mitchell, provincial director, who also announced the 75th Anniversary of W.I. at the Royal York Hotel in Toronto on Feb. 12. Bringing wishes and greetings from West Haldimand W. I. were Mrs. Lamb and Mrs. Bassindale.

Leader of the new 4-H group was announced to be Mrs. Frank Peart. The February meeting will be a social evening, with the husbands as guests at the home of Mrs. Hugh Stewart. Mrs. John Reid read a poem, "Happiness", while others taking part in the program were Mrs. Herb Roberts, Mrs. Cecil Clark, Mrs. Alvin Peart, and Mrs. John Fleming.

The meeting was closed with Mrs. John Reid presenting several contests, together with "Thoughts for the New Year".

Trustee Favors Outdoor Education

Mrs. Barbara Wase Sherring Street, Hagersville, trustee of the Haldimand Board of Education, recently expressed thoughts concerning the proposal to establish an outdoor school in the Decewsville area.

She said, in view of the increasing importance of recreation, teaching children 'how to make good use of their time, and how to preserve and con-

It's here! All the fun of winter activities for families and friends at the planned events scheduled for the entire week of Jan. 24 to 30. Come to Hagersville, and join in the fun at the various events - something for everyone, and all proceeds for the renovating of the ball park.

Springvale WI

Mrs. Reuben Shoup, Main St., Hagersville, was hostess on Jan. 13 for the monthly Springvale W.I. meeting. Mrs. Arthur Harvey, president, presided over the business portion. Discussion resulted regarding the training school on Feb. 17 and 18 for "Knacks of Sewing With Knits", a 150 the 75th Anniversary of the founding of Women's Institute which will be held in Toronto on Feb. 12.

Springvale has planned for this event a Valentine luncheon with Mrs. Jamieson of Ohsweken who was a delegate to A.C.W. in Oslo, Norway, 1971 as a guest speaker.

Miss Betty Covelle, a home economist for Haldimand-Norfolk, spoke on nutrition, as well as health foods, and some of the interesting tales of how these fads began.

A story "The Snowdrop" (January's flower) was read by Mrs. Charles Tietz, and the singing of Hymn of all Nations, closed the meeting. Expressing appreciation to the hostess, special guest, and the program committee members, was done by Mrs. Arthur Winger.

serve what we have... is a lesson well worth learning."

The Haldimand Board of Education has agreed to study a Grand River Conservation Authority proposal, and perhaps participate on a trial basis this year in a program being held at Apps Mills in Brantford.

Education director Jacob Fransen said the Decewsville project which could eventually handle 100 classes a year, would cost the board $10,000, far less than developing one of its own. The curriculum would be set in consultation with school officials.

Couple Wed 40 Years

The three daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Weaver of Cheapside, entertained in honor of the 40th anniversary of their marriage. These are Mrs. John Hoover, and Mrs. Chris Hoover, both of Selkirk, and Mrs. Martin Giesbero of Simcoe.

Mrs. Weaver (Velma) is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Cronk and Mr. Weaver is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Weaver. They were married by Rev. Earl Sider. Their bride was Mrs. Paul Nigh of Springvale. Both were present on Friday night.

They have, besides their three daughters, 11 grandchildren and one great-grandchild. About 85 friends and relatives were present.

The three oldest granddaughters helped in receiving the guests, Beverley Hoover and Beth Hoover were at the door and Kathy Van Brocklin helped serve.

Mrs. Weaver is very active in both the work of the Brethren in Christ Church and in Lambs Corners Women's Institute, both of which presented them with a lovely plant. Many other gifts were received by these two who have spent their lives in Cheapside area and belong to families which have been pioneers in the district. The Jarvis Record extends congratulations and many happy returns.
