A number of general occurrences were investigated, none of which resulted in a serious nature. Still not using seat belts? What's holding you back? Seat belts improve the odds. They give you a far better chance of escaping death or serious injury in a collision. So play the odds... always use seat belts!

Drivers! Collision statistics prove that many traffic deaths and injuries are the result of inattention on the part of the drivers concerned. The Ontario Ministry of Transportation and Communications urges all drivers to watch out for moments of inattention while driving. Develop the habit of always giving driving the full attention it requires for maximum safety.

4-H Horse Club

On the evening of Monday, June 26, the Haldimand 4-H Horsemen held their monthly meeting at the home of Alice Harvey. At the start of the meeting, which was held jointly with other clubs, we judged classes of horses, sheep, swine, beef and dairy cattle, in order to prepare for the annual judging competition.

Next we got into the business section of the meeting. We decided to accept the invitation to ride in Cayuga's Labour Day parade. A committee was chosen to arrange the events we would have in our Achievement Day horse show and to organize the final event.

Hagersville Decoration Day Held

Prior to parading, and forming with the other representative groups in the Decoration Day parade at the Community Centre, on Sunday June 11, a brief memorial service was held at Branch 164.

Life member of the branch, Brock Mattice, placed a wreath at the Legion Memorial Room, followed by memorial prayer given by Legion Padre Rev. A. Thomson.

Omar Phillips was Parade Marshall for the parade and service, with band music supplied by the Legion Western Ontario All Star Band.

The service at the Cemetery was held adjacent to the Legion Memorial Cross and began at 3 p.m., with Rev. Thomson presenting the call to worship and invocation.

Words of welcome and thanks were extended from Fred Bier, on behalf of the I.O.O.F.

Those placing wreaths at the memorial service were Reeve J. Kincaid, representing the Village of Hagersville; Marg Garmon and Clarence Jackson, representing the Canadian Legion and Auxiliary; Marg Harper and Robert Bain, representing the Odd-fellows and Rebekahs; Mrs. Andrew Banfield and Charles Walters, representing the Lions Club; B. Speller, representing the Cubs and Boy Scouts; Cheryl Shoup, Mary Vervaeke and Gail Personnic, representing the Brownies, Girl Guides and Rangers; William McClarty, representing the Hagersville Firemen; Tony Pierroz, representing the local Knights of Columbus and Graham Norval, on behalf of the Kinsmen Club of Hagersville.

Andrew Sabola, well-known local trumpeter played the Last Post.

Psalm 72, verses 1 to 20 were read by Rev. Martin Rule of the Hagersville United Church. Rev. Wubbles of the St. Mary's Roman Catholic Church, led in prayer, followed by Rev. Donald Eustace of the Anglican Church, reading the New Testament lesson, as taken from Chapter 6 of Paul's letter to the Ephesians. The address for the service was presented by Rev. Adam Thomson of the Hagersville Presbyterian Church.

Prior to his closing remarks, he mentioned since this service is affiliated with the Legion, it was only also appropriate to pause and remember those who sacrificed, by giving the greatest of all sacrifices, their lives during the wars.

The benediction was given by Rev. A. Thomson.

The parade consisted of local organizations, as well as color parties and representatives from Legion branches of Waterford 123, Teeterville 526, and Simcoe 79.

This was a most colorful parade and service, however, local attendance and interest was not evident this year. Following the service at the cemetery, the parade formed up again at King St. W. and proceeded to Park and Alma Sts., where a drum head service was held at the Cenotaph to commemorate the birthday of Lt. Col. John McCrae, famous author, physician, soldier, and statesman.
