Baskets of blue mums, white and mauve daisies and white gladioli decorated Mount Elgin United Church at 3:30 p.m. June 24, 1972 as Kathleen Anne Cornish, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cornish of Mt. Elgin, became the bride of Earl Laird More, son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell J. More of Jarvis. Rev. H. Wright officiated at the ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of legodo, set off by daisies along the cuffs, neckline and bodice. Daisies also decorated her long train attached at the shoulders. A headpiece of daisies held in place her floor length veil.

The bride carried a colonial bouquet of white and mauve daisies, blue mums, and baby's breath decorated with blue ribbons.

Miss Mary Lou Cornish, of Mt. Elgin, sister of the bride was maid of honour. Bridesmaids were Miss Kathie More, of Jarvis, sister of the groom and Miss Sandra Gilbert, of London, close friend of the bride and groom. The bride's attendants wore floor-length, ruffled gowns of blue and mauve floral voile with white daisies set in blue ribbons as headpieces.

The bridesmaids carried white wicker baskets containing mauve and white daisies with blue mums, decorated with streamers of blue ribbon.

Best man was Russell R. More of Guelph, brother of the groom. Ushers were Wayne Lindsay, brother-in-law of the groom, of Nanticoke, and Doug Flanders, of Ingersoll, cousin of the bride.

The groom and his attendants were attired in powder blue jackets, providing a beautiful contrast to the dresses of the bride's attendants. The groom and his attendants wore powder-blue carnations as boutonnières.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Laird More

Music during the ceremony was provided by Lorne Dotterer of Goderich. During the signing of the register, guests were favoured with a recording of Bridge Over Troubled Water sung by the Mitchell District High School Choir.

A reception for 70 guests was held in the church basement. The bride's mother received guests in a turquoise street-length dress accented by blue and white accessories. The groom's mother chose a street-length dress of gold chiffon.

A dance was held later in the evening in honour of the new couple in the Mt. Elgin Community Hall.

For a wedding trip to Niagara Falls the bride chose a chocolate brown pant suit of double knit, with a deep yellow blouse, worn with a corsage of yellow sweetheart roses.

Guests were present from London, Toronto, Jarvis, Stratford, Harrietsville, Ingersoll, Guelph, St. Thomas, Mitchell and Mt. Elgin.

The bride and groom will be residing in Stratford, and teaching in Mitchell.

We deliver.

The rest is up to you.

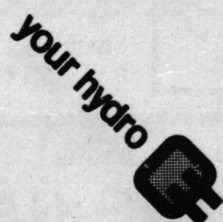

Delivering a constant flow of power, dependably and safely—that's your Hydro's round-the-clock responsibility. And because electricity provides so many services so dependably, most homeowners can take it for granted.

And yet, in many homes over ten years old, the quality of service is severely restricted—simply because the wiring is outdated and inadequate.

Rewiring can make a world of difference: In convenience, by providing ample outlets and switches where you want them. In performance, by bringing full power to your appliances so that they can operate at peak efficiency. In safety, by eliminating the hazards of an overburdened wiring system. Good reasons for giving top priority to your home wiring when you consider making improvements.

To find out what rewiring can do for your home, call a qualified Electrical Modernization contractor. And ask him about the Hydro Finance Plan—an easy way to fit the work into your budget.

SPORTS ROUNDUP

Kett Sparkles In Debut

Paul Kett, making his first start of the season and his last before getting married, turned in a sparkling performance against the tough hitting team from Walsingham.

In pitching a 4-0 shutout over the Senators, Kett was almost perfect. Paul retired the first 12 men in a row and 14 before the home town team got a hit.

Wade Underhill, pinch hitting for Joe Hammond, got a wrong field single to break up the no hitter spell with two out in the fifth. Terry Gill cracked a clean single in the seventh and George Gates got a hit in the eighth for just three hits.

Kett walked three and struck out 10 in going the route for his first win and Hagersville's fourth straight. Newcomer Joe Haslinger worked behind the plate and looks like he will help the team in future games.

Jim Herkimer with two hits led the Hagersville attack. Simon, Atkinson and Paul Kett stroked the other hits in a fast moving and exciting game.

Bantams 16 Paris 7

Craig McKeen led the Hagersville Legion Bantams to a convincing 16-7 win over Paris Wednesday night. McKeen cracked a triple, double and single and seemed to set the pace for the rest of the team as they were all on a hitting spree.

Jimmy Davis and Terry Crawford chipped in with two hits apiece with Richard Salvatore getting a double. Chuck Anderson, Mike Liscombe, H. Williams, D. Watson, Phil Nie, and Ed Forgarty all had singles.

Salvatore, making his first start of the season, hurled five and 2/8 innings of three hit ball. He struck out four, while walking three as Paris scored five runs.

Richard Ostrowski came in on relief and gave up two runs, three hits while striking out three. This win moved the boys to the top of the league. The boys are in action every Wednesday night at home.

Chevies Lose First Double Header

The Jarvis Chevies dropped both games of a double header for the first time this year.

They had won four double headers before Brantford took them 9-3 and 7-3 Saturday night.

The hotel men from Brantford wasted little time getting started as both games were decided in the first inning of each game.

In the first game, the visitors jumped on starter Ray Carpenter for five runs before Bob Kozak came to his rescue. Kozak fared little better as they picked up four more runs in the next four innings.

The first game lasted only five innings due to curfew. Ted Phibbs banged out a home run for the only bright spot for the Chevies.

Dennis Craddock, Bill Prince, Terry Desser Brian Smith and Bob Kozak all hit safely for Jarvis but the boys could not put them together.

If the first game was bad the second was no better.

Brantford jumped on Nick Pantzouri for four runs in the first inning and that was the ball game.

It was 5-0 before Jarvis got on the score board with two runs in the fourth. Ted Phibbs hit his second home run of the night with Gord Fearman adding another.

Carpenter came on in the second inning and worked until the eighth when Kozak took over. Brian Smith picked up two hits while Ken Graham and Craddock got one each. Fidler and Sedan poked a home run and single in the contest as they had only seven hits.

It looked like Jarvis started the wrong man in each game as the relievers looked better the second time out in the evening.

Jarvis will play the Simcoe Intermediates in a double header this Saturday night in Jarvis. If the boys have any hopes of finishing first they will need a sweep of both games. The M.C. team are a real bunch of hustlers so the Chevies will have to pull up their socks for this one.
