Last Friday the students at the Jarvis Public School made a blitz of the village collecting several piles of garbage, which were brought back to the school and trucked away. The project was part of a week of study at the school on the environment and pollution problems. (Staff Photo)

Hagersville Library Guild

On Thursday, June 1, 1972, a general meeting of the Hagersville Library Guild was held at the library, with 13 members and guests present.

Chairman Pat Mackereth welcomed the group and explained the informal structure of the guild. In the absence of the treasurer she also mentioned that the treasury stood at $9. She also explained that because we are a working group rather than a fund-raising group, we depend on membership fees and our hoped-for commission on "Art in the Park '72" for operating funds.

In the absence of the secretary, Mrs. Mackereth gave a short resume of the executive and general meetings held throughout the past year, and the Guild's activities and accomplishments, since it was formed by interested patrons of the library one year ago. Topics discussed at the meeting were:

Art in the Park '72 for which plans are underway, and it is hoped that we will have much variety of displays and local talent.

The Story Hour - There was a short discussion regarding the time and place of the story hour and those members whose children are involved felt that Wednesday morning during the summer, is preferable to Saturdays.

To finish up the meeting, slides were shown of the progress of the Davidson Centre, after which the meeting was moved to the Davidson Centre for a short tour of the entire building, in particular the library area.

Anyone wishing to become a new member of the Guild, or to renew a membership, please leave one dollar with Dave Banks, or at the library.

Cheapside UCW

The UCW of Cheapside United Church met in the church basement at 10.30 a.m. May 11, to pack a bale for the Harbour Mission in Hamilton.

There was a pot luck dinner at noon for 14 ladies, Mr. Creaser and two children. The regular meeting was held after dinner with Mrs. Arvil Nie and Mrs. Ivan Whitford presiding.

The meeting opened by singing the hymn Happy The Home When God Is There, followed by prayer. The roll call, A good habit for every UCW woman, received many good answers. The minutes were read and approved and business dealt with.

The hymn, Creations Lord We Give The Thanks, was sung, the theme for the day was Brotherhood, an article by Rev. M. Goodman, Lets Think it over, Genesis 19, 23-29; Ecclesiastic 5, 1-6 and Deuteronomy 31, 7-8 was also read in connections with two other articles entitled The Long Way Home and The Restless Wing. The offering was received and dedicated.

Mrs. Gerald Willis gave the Chapter on racial tensions in Angola. The hymn, How Firm a Foundation Ye Saints of the Lord, and prayer, brought the meeting to a close.
