

Six-Eight Club 20th Anniversary

The 20th birthday of the Six-Eight Club was celebrated on St. Valentine's Day, with a dinner at Enzo's Restaurant, Hagersville. Husbands and male friends were invited to guests to this occasion.

Following the dinner, all were invited to the home of Reta Ebert for

Hagersville WI

The February meeting of the Hagersville Women's Institute met at the home of Ida Kiefer, Main St. N., on Feb. 24. President Mrs. Sherman Beck, opened the meeting with a poem, Snowstorm, and Roll Call was answered with 12 members naming a Valentine dessert.

The Spring Conference will be held at Faith Centennial Church Selkirk on March 13 at 1.30 p.m. and the 75th Anniversary celebration of the West Haldimand District, will be a banquet at the Hagersville United Church, on Wednesday, April 19, with tickets obtainable from Secretary Mrs. Don Smith.

It was decided to have a Penny Sale at the April meeting, to benefit the Mental Health Association. A decision was also made to send the President to the Officers' Conference at Guelph in May. The March meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. William Mitchell, with her group in charge of the program.

Plans were made for the WI to celebrate the 75th Anniversary with a Dessert and Card Party at the Roman Catholic Church, on May 16. The president gave an interesting talk on the history of the Women's Institute, which originated in Stoney Creek on Feb. 19, 1897.

A contest, parts of the body, was conducted by Miss Kiefer, after which Mrs. Mitchell gave an informative account of the 75th Anniversary Luncheon held at the Royal York Hotel, Toronto, on Feb. 12.

There were 46 members from East and West Haldimand among the 1,400 women who attended this event. Special guest was President of the Associated Country Women of the World, Mrs. Olive Farquharson, O.B.E. of England, who spoke of the spreading of the Women's Institutes from one in Stoney Creek so many years ago, to so many countries around the world at this time.

The Hagersville Women's Institute is presenting a book The Women's Institute Story, to the local Library.

Missionary Council Rally

Hagersville Pentecostal Tabernacle was the host Church on Saturday March 4, from 2.30 p.m. to 7 p.m. for the Hamilton Sectional Women's Missionary Council Rally.

During the afternoon's program an interesting panel discussion, Meeting the Needs of Our Teens and Young Adults was found to be most interesting. Moderator of the panel was Mrs. D. Emmons, with members being Mrs. W. H.

Moody of Burlington, Mrs. W. R. Kirby of Simcoe and Mrs. N. P. Thorne of Brantford.

Mrs. Emmons gave an address on Responsibility to our Home and Foreign Assignments. Leader of the evening fellowship was Mrs. Dorothy Thoms, with Mrs. R. Stewart speaking briefly on Redeeming the Time. Ladies were present from Ancaster, Oakville and other surrounding areas, as well as from this district.

Chief Guide, respectively.

The Jarvis Guide Company celebrated Thinking Day on their regular meeting night, Feb. 23 at the Anglican Parish Hall, by inviting their mothers and Mrs. John Brintnell, Commissioner for Hagersville District, to a supper prepared by the Guides themselves.

Five girls, Joan Fleming, Shari Sardine, Susan Willis, Brenda Wilson and Janice Wilson greeted the guests at the door and waited on tables as part of the work required for their hostess badge. After supper, while these girls cleared up, the rest of the Guides and guests played an alphabet game.

The Guides then put on a formal program to commemorate the birthdays of Lord and Lady Baden-Powell.

Sandra Dosser, Cheryl Nelligan and Jean Reu were presented with their hostess badges; and Doris Reu received her challenge badge.

Money was collected at the meeting for the World Friendship Fund. Money from this fund is used to promote Guiding in countries where it is just beginning. It is also used to help maintain the four World Centers of Guiding - Olave House in England, Our Cabana in Mexico, Our Chalet in Switzerland and Sangam in India as well as to help where needed in time of disaster.

On The Green

The Hagersville Lawn Bowling Club held the second of its winter series of meetings.
