

Lindsay—Diebel

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at Chalmers United Church in Guelph when Gwen Dabel became the bride of David Andre Lindsay. Joyce is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Diebel, 132 Dufferin St., Guelph and a sister of Mrs. Gerald McKenzie of Selkirk.

David is the son of Mrs. Grace Lindsay and the late W. Lindsay of Naples, Florida, one time residents of this area. David is a brother of Mrs. Charles Weaver of Nanticoke.

The bride's wedding gown was of white cut velvet and white lace. The matron of honor was Marion McKenzie, sister of the bride, and the bridesmaids were Sheila Weaver, niece of the groom and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Weaver of Nanticoke and Stella Hyloneuk of Guelph.

OPP Report

CAYUGA—During the week of Feb 27 to March 4, officers investigated 10 motor vehicle collisions resulting in injuries to two persons. Seven of the collisions occurred on township and county roads, the remainder on the highway. Eight hazardous moving violations were processed which included three charges of impaired driving, as a result of these collisions.

A quantity of money was stolen from the Jarvis Hotel, investigation is being continued. Two breakins were investigated along with 20 requests for assistance answered.

Accidents, especially in winter, are often the result of cars being driven too fast for conditions. Always make sure you drive at a safe speed and adjust to changing road, weather and traffic conditions. Remember, safe driving, the kind that keeps you out of collisions, depends on your ability to be aware of driving conditions and to adjust to them. Don't forget such adjustments can help prevent needless collisions.

ilar to the adult dresses. All gowns were ankle length.

The bride wore an heirloom ruby pendant presented to her great grandmother by her great grandfather on their 40th wedding anniversary. The attendants wore pearl pendants presented to them by the bride.

The best man was Larry Poelman of Mt. Hope. The ushers were Robert Diebel, brother of the bride, of Guelph and Joseph Weaver, nephew of the groom. The groom and best man wore black tuxedos and the ushers wore black suits.

The bride and her attendants carried an assortment of rose colored flowers, lily of the valley and ivy. The reception was held at Aberfoyle town hall.

Among the out of town guests were Mrs. Charles Weaver and family, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Lindsay of Vittoria, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald McKenzie of Selkirk and family.

The bride and groom spent their honeymoon at Naples, Florida, guests of the groom's mother Mrs. Grace Lindsay. Mr. and Mrs. David Lindsay will reside in Guelph.

dale is secretary and Mrs. Ira Sherk is treasurer. A ways and means committee was also elected.

It was decided to proceed with plans and estimates for new wash-room and booth facilities at the ballpark. It was reported that the Brownies and Guides had purchased the paint for their room in the hall and it was moved that this bill be paid.

The next meeting will be March 9 at 8.15 p.m. at the Selkirk Centennial Hall.

New for 72. Honda 350 Four CB350 Four—Honda has done it again! The new CB350 Four takes all the proven basic design features and advantages of its two bigger brothers and incorporates them into lightest, lithest, most maneuverable Honda Four yet. With its 4 cylinders, 4 racing-type carbs and 4 tuned exhaust pipes, the CB350 Four can outrun a lot of bigger bikes on pure performance. And the ones it can't, it outshines anyway on pure riding pleasure. See the new CB350 Four at your Honda dealer's. It will be arriving soon.
