Summer
Hockey

After three games the boys have played in Ancaster, they have skated off with a win a loss and a tie. The first game ended in a 3-3 tie with Steve Montague, Scott Webber and Tom Saunders picking up goals.

The second game the Pee-Wees took a look at a real hockey team and dropped a 6-0 decision. This was a big fast Hamilton team that made the Nelligan brothers look like little fellows.

After two starts the Hagersville team came up with a 3-1 win. Bryan Webber scored two goals while Mike Adamovich got one. Dave Mayor, Bryan Webber and Adamovich played strong games for the winners and each picked up an assist.

Troy Robbins made a lot of big saves but this team still needs another goal tender, as Troy will not be able to make all the games. The two goalies would likely spell each other off as all boys get equal ice time in this league.

Minor Team Playing At Ancaster

This week will wrap up the N.H.L. playoffs with Boston the likely Stanley Cup winner. With the big teams folding up it should end the hockey season, but one of our teams will be playing a 32 game schedule in the Ancaster arena.

This is probably the first time that a coach of one of the minor teams has decided to do something about the poor shape of the minor hockey setup in Hagersville.

This past season Hagersville had the poorest representation in O.M.H.A. playoffs of any team in the league. Even Cayuga who has had artificial ice for only one year sent one team to the semi-finals. Caledonia won two championships with another team gaining Coach Harry Reekie is very disappointed with the weather as he had to cancel several workouts. The early training the boys had in the gym will all be for nothing when they can't practice for a week and 10 days at a time.

Paul Kett and Fred McKeen have recovered from hockey injuries and are raring to go. Kett hopes to swing the big stick this year but a young red head might slow him down a step. Jarvis will open the season in Waterford against the Lancers on May 27.

the semi-finals. They always have had a good junior team and it looks like they will have one for a few years. By November they will have gained more ice time than a lot of boys will get all next year. They may not be any better hockey players for their efforts but at least they are out trying to improve.

If our Minor Hockey executive and Arena board try this hard to improve, it should help the boys. The ice is put in the arena a month later than most towns and taken out at least two weeks earlier. This makes for six weeks less ice time than other places. Should we hire a coach to come in and coach the coaches? Should we have one system or style of play up through the minor

Rain Dampens
Ball Workouts

Rain and wet grounds have put a damper on most of the outside workouts for the area ball teams.

The Hagersville Intermediates have yet to hold an outdoor workout but hope to practice each Tuesday and Thursday until the season begins. The schedule has been moved back a week due to weather conditions so the first home game will be Thursday May 25 when Hagersville hosts the Langton club.

There are plenty of openings on this club and it is hoped to get a few of the overage Juveniles out. Playing coach and third baseman Larry Atkinson has been working out with Jarvis hoping to get a jump on his teammates. Lou promises he'll have no spare tire to slow him up this year.

Student Exchange Between Hagersville, Sudbury

On Sunday April 9, six Grade 13 students from Hagersville Secondary School journeyed 313 miles to Confederation Secondary School in Val Caron, a small town north of Sudbury. Mr. Bradstock, head of the Geography Department at H.S.S., in connection with Mr. Vardy,

Workshop
For Area
Churches

Hamilton Presbytery (Presbyterian) is sponsoring a Layman's Workshop or Conference on Evangelism for the area churches, including congregations from Carleton Place, Caledonia, Hagersville, Walpole, Jarvis and Port Dover Monday and Tuesday, May 15, 16 at 8 p.m. in St. Andrew's, Hagersville.

Special human resource people are Rev. Wayne Smith and Rev. Alex McCombie, secretary and assistant secretary, respectively, of the General Assembly's Board of Evangelism and Social Action.

Monday night will be largely an open meeting dealing with two main questions. Where are we now? What does God want us to be doing in evangelism? Tuesday night will feature a film followed by discussion. This work shop presents a program that works by laymen who worked out the program.

If you are interested you are welcome to this two night event in St. Andrew's, Hagersville. There is no admission.

the activities in the school. They report that the people they were with couldn't seem to do enough for them.

They arrived home at about 7 p.m. Friday weary and glad to see familiar country.

The week of May 1 to 4, H.S.S. had the opportunity to host five students from Sudbury. The five students were Gay Bosse, Claire Philion, Marie Tasse, Marion Bonokoshi, and Roman Makerek. They arrived by train on Saturday April 29, and stayed until Thursday.

A special tour inside the Nanticoke power project was arranged. They spent a day at Niagara Falls, and a day in Toronto. On Wednesday night they enjoyed a hayride ending with a weiner roast at the home of Linda Church.
