

Chandler-Davis

Baskets of large white feathered mums and red roses decorated the Baptist Church in Hagersville for the candle-light spring wedding of Sharon Eleanor, eldest daughter of Mrs. Mildred Davis, of 54 Oakwood Ave., Simcoe, and James Allen, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. James Chandler, R.R. 4 Hagersville. Rev. A. E. England officiated at the ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her grandfather, Cecil Davis wore an A-line floor length gown of white satin with velvet embroidered roses that flowed into a train from her empire waistline, which was trimmed with dainty white and green daisies and around her neckline.

Her three tier scalloped veil of illusion was trimmed with small daisies and held in place with a large white velvet rose and lily of the valley. She carried a bouquet of white carnations, red roses and baby's breath. She wore silver pierced earrings a gift of the groom.

Her cousin Sandy Gordon was maid of honour wearing an A-line floor length gown of moss green norganza with white and green embroidered daisies over green taffeta, with an empire waist trimmed with dark green velvet sash.

Her bridesmaids were Beverly Chan-dlar, sister-in-law of the groom, and Christine Wilson sister of the bride, who were dressed identically to the maid of honour. Flower girl was Sherry Chandler niece of the groom, who wore a gown of moss green polyester crepe, a white velvet sash, trimmed her empire waistline, with white and green daisies along her neckline, cuffs and on her sash.

She wore a gold locket, gift of the bride, and the other girls wore silver pierced earrings, also a gift from the bride. All the girls carried white baskets of white shasta daisies and baby's breath. Their hair was entwined with velvet ribbons to match their dresses.

Edward Chandler, brother of the groom, was best man. Ushers were Robert Chandler, brother of the groom and Rick Wilson, brother of the bride. The ring bearer was Kevin Wilson, brother of the bride who carried a heart shaped pillow of white satin and velvet embroidered roses, same as the bride's dress, the edges were shirred and a white velvet ribbon flowed from the centre.

All the boys wore black tuxedos and white bow ties. The ring bearer wore a ring, a gift of the groom and the other boys wore cuff links, also a gift of the groom.

The soloist, Mrs. David Swing sang O Perfect Love and The Wedding Prayer. The wedding music was played by Paul Simington. Following the ceremony a dance was held at the Hagersville Legion, music was supplied by the bride's uncle, Roger Davis and his band for 130 guests. Harry Forrest, uncle of the bride was master of ceremonies.

The guests were received by the bride's mother wearing a floor length gown of hot pink polyester crepe trimmed with silver, and a sleeveless long coat of raschel lace same color as her dress, and a corsage of red roses, and the groom's mother wearing a floor length gown of lilac polyester crepe with pearl trim and a corsage of yellow rosebuds. Pam Gordon, cousin of the bride, looked after the guest book. She wore a yellow polyester crepe gown with white and yellow daisies as trim. A buffet lunch was served after the dance. Out of town guests were present from Cayuga, Dunnville, Jarvis, Caltonia, Brantford, Simcoe, Waterford, Brampton, Wilsonton, Niagara Falls and Guelph.

For their honeymoon to Niagara Falls the bride chose a purple and pink crimplene patterned dress and pink crimplene vest, with white accessories. She wore a corsage of white carnations.

Previous to the wedding the bride was honored with a miscellaneous shower given by the bride's aunts Mrs. Lois Gordon, Mrs. Roger Davis, Mrs. Gordon Herkimer and Mrs. Harry Forrest. A linen shower was given by the bride's cousin Sandy Gordon. A community shower was held at the home of the groom's parents. Edward Chandler held a stag party for his brother at his home, and the groom's parents entertained for the rehearsal party. The bride and groom are residing in Wilsonton.

Anglican Church Women

The ACW of All Saints Anglican Church met on Thursday May 4, in the Parish Hall, following a Corporate Communion with the President, Mrs. E. G. Hendriks presiding.

Ten members were present and each answered roll call by naming a mother of the Bible. Rev. Donald Eustace was also in attendance.

Reports included the completion of redecorating the kitchen and washrooms in the Parish Hall and a vote of thanks extended to Lloyd Henry and his assistants for their services; all dishes washed, silver cleaned and replaced in cupboards. The April bake sale on the market was very profitable and the president thanked all who had contributed.

Mrs. Lucy Castleman then presided for the devotional Women of the Bible and preceded the topic with a poem Spring Cleaning. It was emphasized that the women of the Bible, even without the modern conveniences of today, had time for their devotion to God and preached the teachings of Christ. Mrs. Castleman was thanked for her untiring efforts by the president.

A short discussion took place regarding the ordination of women into the ministry. Everyone was reminded of the International Harvester Concert to be held in the Parish Hall May 26 at 8 p.m. Coffee, pop and donuts are to be sold by the ACW; bake sales to be held on the Market Square on May 31 and June 28. Our next meeting will be held on June 27 at the home of Mrs. David Wase and will be preceded by a Pot Luck Supper at 6.30 p.m. All Anglican ladies are cordially invited to attend.

The closing prayer was given by Mrs. Fred Bier.

Chest Receipts Total $374

Starting on Monday May 15 the Jarvis Community Chest Campaign got off to a good start with all canvassers being in receipt of their materials and districts assigned to all. Treasurer Ed Stire reports receipts to 6 p.m. May 22 totaling $374.

Loyal Orange Lodges were the first donations followed by Mrs. V. Duxbury, Mrs. Harry Preston, Mrs. R. A. Miller and Mrs. Earl Stallwood, 77 donations in all.

There are many collectors who are waiting to finish their route until everyone has been contacted in their area. It is hoped that next week's report will add up more nearly to the objective of $2,800. Thanks to all who have helped to date.
