

HAGERSVILLE Highlights

Northview School Hallowe'en Parade

Principal J.R. Lundy and teachers of Northview Public School, once again organized a successful Hallowe'en costume parade at the school on Tuesday, Oct. 31. The parade of costumed school children from Grade 1 to 8 began at 1:30 p.m. with judges being Mrs. Barbara Wase, Mrs. June Best, Mrs. Estelle Winger, Mrs. Hilda Atkinson, Mrs. Madeline Young and Mrs. Shirley McGrath.

Explorers Meet

President of the Hagersville Explorer Girls, Cindy Atkinson, welcomed nearly 20 girls, and the two leaders to the weekly meeting on Wednesday, Nov. 1. Minutes and roll call were taken by the Secretary, Susan Willard, prior to business. Treasurer Karen Esselment reported on amount of collection, and expenses regarding the Explorer supper. The afternoon worship service was arranged by Susan Mattice, Kim Shoup, with Joan Shoup at the piano. Various games were enjoyed by the girls, prior to the preparing of supper, which the girls done themselves, after being divided into two groups, each with a leader. They received instructions on preparing first course and dessert, after which the tables were set, and the food enjoyed. The activities concluded at 7:30 p.m., with the girls being informed of those in charge of next week's meeting at 4 p.m.
