

HAGERSVILLE Highlights

Friendship Club Meets

There were 24 in attendance at the Parish Hall on Thursday afternoon, Oct. 19, at which time Mrs. D. Marshall stopped for a brief time, and greeted the members. A hearty greeting was given to two new members, Mrs. Laura DeGow and Mrs. Edna Hodgson.

Annie Winkworth was back with the group, after travelling quite some distance from Beamsville, and has joined the club for another year. Two other members who are unable to get out regularly, were present for the afternoon, Mrs. Annie Moyer and Annie Winkworth. Also mention was made of two members being on the sick list, while get well wishes are extended to them, Mrs. Wes Carpenter and Mrs. Francis Slack.

President Mrs. Madeline Young read a letter from Mrs. Curran of Delhi, informing the club of the Zone 3 Fall Rally, held in Tillsonburg Nov. 8. Following the singing of prayer, the lunch committee of Mrs. Pauline Yallop, Mrs. Bessie Gawland, and Mrs. Winnie Mattice served refreshments.

Prizes for the afternoon hosiery were won by Wilson Herod with 282, Annie Moyer next with 269, and Leone McKeen receiving low, with a score of 194.

Despite the unfavorable weather, on Thursday Oct. 26, there were

Legion Visits All Saints For Service

A large number of Legion, Branch 164 members, and Auxiliary attended the Remembrance Day service at All Saints' Church, Main St. N., on Sunday Nov. 12.

The flag colors were placed at the front of the Church, and flowers on the Church altar were placed by Mrs. Peggy Kiefer, in memory of Pte. Peter Campbell who was killed in Korea in 1950.

During the service a moment of silent remembrance was observed, prior to singing God Save the Queen, and O Canada.

Rev. Donald Eustace, who is the assistant Chaplain of the Legion delivered a most appropriate address at the morning service, closing with - "Today, then, we remember with Thanksgiving our Lord, and our brethren. Only when peace, freedom and the other ideals kindled by our faith die, will they truly be forgotten, therefore, let us remember them."

Branch 164 Meeting Held

President Clarence Jackson presided at the regular monthly meeting of Branch 164, on Tuesday Nov. 7, when 25 members were in attendance.

Secretary, Madeline Haley read the previous minutes.

The report of the treasurer was presented by Mike Vanni, after which the items of correspondence were dealt with. A letter was read from the Six Nations Reservation, requesting a delegation to attend their Remembrance Day memorial parade and service at Ohsweken at 1:45 on Sunday Nov. 19.

A letter from the Hagersville Police was also read, which acknowledged the letter from the Branch, requesting police assistance at the Legion memorial parade and service, on Sunday Nov. 12. They requested notification of any changes in time or location, and stated their pleasure to be of assistance for this occasion.

Cards of appreciation were read from Edward Eastes, Bill Walsh, and also a card from Marie and Ted Brooks for a donation made to the Heart Fund in memoriam.

Standing committee reports were presented by Public Relations Chairman, Alton Esselment, who mentioned a visit made to the home of Reginald Ion and his wife, Poppy Committee Chairman, Al Haley reported on the Poppy

Sales, and presented to those present for their purchase, most appropriate bumper stickers, which stated - "If you can't remember - Think."

Dave Ince reported on the sick committee and stated four members were in hospitals, they being, Percy McLellan, Gord Davison, Fran Davison and Mandy Kiefer.

Clarence Jackson reported the membership to date is 318, with the Early Bird Campaign presently at 75.

New business included suggestion to show films once a month, this to be on a trial basis, with Peter Hendricks to make the necessary arrangements, and he will report on this at a later date.

Regarding the Hoss Parties, organized by Public Relations Officer, A. Esselment, these will be held for charities in the near future, and advertising will be done regarding date, etc.

Frank Liscombe was appointed to make arrangements regarding the annual Turkey Raffle to be held on Friday Dec. 1.

UCW Visits Factory

More than 40 ladies went by Heaslip chartered bus on Tuesday Nov. 7 to the Coyle's Factory Outlet in Tillsonburg. The trip was arranged by Mrs. Muriel Miller, Mrs. Hilda Atkinson and Mrs. Peggy Hyde, on behalf of both U.C.W. groups of the Hagersville United Church.

Guides Hold Fun Night

A fun night for the Hagersville Girl Guide Company was held Nov. 6 at the I.O.O.F. Hall with two of the local association executive present to keep the company active until a full-time leader is found.

Four members of the Ranger Company organized games for the Guides. Pat Petracca, Ranger leader, introduced the Rangers, Mrs. M. Millett, Mrs. John Almas of the Local Association, Mrs. G. Rumball and Marilyn Burke, District Commissioner.

After a game, Mrs. Rumball talked with the girls about badge work and advised them on how to go about earning badges. Mrs. Rumball will be helping with badge work. Miss Burke organized the nomination and election of patrol leaders. The patrol leader is the liaison between the Captain and the girls in her patrol. The patrol leaders for the Guide Company are Chris Veri, Debbie Vervaeke and Ann Millett.

Following more games, the girls enjoyed cookies and chocolate milk. Miss Petracca led the Guides and guests in a campfire.

When a permanent leader is found for the Guide Company, an experienced leader is available to help her learn the art of running a Guide Company.

winter weddings, one in February and the other for March.

A nominating committee consisting of Julie Rule and Irene Johnson volunteered to have a slate of officers for the December meeting.

Mrs. Edward James read a detailed letter on supplies needed for the bale, and told of her recent contact with the ladies in Kitchener.

Reporting on the Archivist duties of the U.C.W., Mrs. Sherman Beck asked for any clippings or information that she may use in her report each month. Dispensing with the minutes of the previous meeting, due to the late hour, Mrs. Hyde closed with prayer.
