August 26 was the date of a lovely wedding ceremony performed by the Rev. Martin Rule assisted by the groom's uncle Rev. William Whyte of Montreal, in Hagersville United Church, when Lucille Allison only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Lofthouse became the bride of David Frederick Wright son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Wright of Port Dover.

Entering the church on the arm of her father, the ceremony was performed in the presence of 105 guests. The bride was charming in a gown of sheer tulle over satin featuring a bodice of beaded French lace with bishop sleeves, and short train. Her finger tip veil of silk illusion was held in place by a small hat and she carried a shower bouquet of white carnations mums and red roses.

The maid of honor was the bride's friend Nancy Davis. Bridesmaids were Gwen Nie and Mrs. Marlene Hoover, cousins of the bride and the groom's sister Mrs. Carol Pos. All dressed alike in floor length empire gowns of cotton eyelet. The maid of honor dressed in mauve with matching sash and hat ribbon. Others wore pink, blue and yellow with matching ribbons and picture hats and featuring puffed short sleeves and A-line skirts. They wore pearl drop necklaces the gift of the bride. They carried nosegays of corn flowers carnations and mums.

The groom was attended by his cousin Peter Whyte of Burlington. Ushers were Wray Nie and Leroy Bartlett, cousins of the bride and Harry Pos, the groom's brother-in-law.

The church was decorated with summer flowers. Music was by Jeff Bullivant, Church organist, and a duet by Ruby Bartlett and Mrs. Mildred Fess, cousins of the bride. The reception was in the Christian Education room of the Church. The bride's mother wore a power blue gown of chiffon in street length with lace vest coat. For travelling to a northern Ontario cottage for their honeymoon at Barry's Bay, the bride wore a yellow polyester crepe dress with white accessories and yellow rose corsage.

The groom's parents entertained the rehearsal party at the Cove Room Port Dover, previous to the rehearsal.

Showers were given in honor of the bride by Gwen and Mary Nie and by Mrs. Carol Pos.

Following the ceremony the happy couple were treated along with the bridesmaid and best man to a three seated surrey ride around Hagersville drawn by a matched team of Palominos, a present from Ben Allison.

The bride has been employed at Linda's Coiffure in Hamilton and the groom is on the staff of Hagersville High School. They are residing on Main St. N., Jarvis where they have purchased and renovated a fine old home.
