Laidlaws Make Purchase

Laidlaw Motorways Ltd., of Hamilton, recently agreed to acquire all the outstanding shares of Ingersoll Sanitation Co., Ltd., for an undisclosed amount of cash and notes.

This is the tenth company Laidlaw has purchased this year, and the eighth with waste management interests. Ingersoll holds refuse removal contracts with the towns of Ingersoll, Thamesville, St. Mary's and Strathroy.

The company also removes commercial and industrial refuse in these areas, and in London. Ingersoll operates approved landfill sites and transfer stations in the same areas. The operation of landfill sites is a new step in Laidlaw's expansion of waste management operations.

President of Laidlaw Motorways Ltd., Michael DeGroote, is a former resident of Hagersville, where a n office of the company is still retained at Main St. N.

Ivory - Snowden

A very pretty garden wedding took place on Aug. 26 when Nicholas Merlin (Nicki) Snowden and William Craig Ivory exchanged vows. The Reverend R. Douglas Perry, officiated at the ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Snowden of Nanticoke and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Ivory of Willowdale.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an ankle length, smock-style gown with white dimity bodice and long sleeves with deep eyelet border and blue cornflower trim, a high round neckline trimmed in gingham check of turquoise and white, matching the full bias skirt, with the white cotton eyelet trim on the bottom of the skirt, and wide hem of the underskirt.

The bride carried a basket of white roses with white shasta daisies, blue and pink cornflowers and myrtle. Her "Gibson Girl" hair style was laced with white satin ribbon.

Maid of honor, Rebecca Snowden, the bride's sister, wore a floor length gown of nylon crepe, of shaded blue flowers on green and white background, fashioned on the simple '30's' style, high fitted neckline, long flowing skirt with fitted waist held with sash and bow at back. The sleeves were short and high puffed.

She carried a basket of shasta daisies, myrtle, and pink and blue cornflowers.

Ring bearer was the bride's nephew Thomas Snowden, dressed in navy blue short pants and knee socks, white short sleeved shirt trimmed in navy with a navy bow tie.

Ralph Lucas of Toronto, a friend of the bride and groom, was best man.

Organist was Donald Smith of Caledonia.

The reception was held on the lawn and in a yellow and white marquee, with small tables decorated with the shasta daisies and cornflowers.

To greet the guests, the mother of the bride wore a floor length sleeveless gown of flowered polyester knit lace, in shades of blues and purples, over purple underskirt. The groom's mother chose a full length gown of polyester crepe with yellow bodice and long sleeves, fitted waist and full skirt of figured white and yellow. Both mothers wore corsages of white roses.

Doug Shippey and his group, five young musicians from Caledonia and Jarvis, played for listening and dancing, during the evening.

The happy couple flew to London, England, where they are making their home for the present.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivory

Guests numbering 160 were present at the wedding, from Toronto, Woodstock, Kitchener, Waterloo, London, Ottawa, Peterborough, Galt, Hamilton, Burlington, Buffalo N.Y., Indian Mt. Lakes Pa., Nanticoke and surrounding district.

Harries Reunion

A Harries family reunion was held at the Explorer Inn at Jarvis on Saturday Sept. 23, 1972 when Ivan Harries Q.C., Toronto, entertained the cousins and his aunt Mrs. Ervina Makey, the only surviving sister of his father.

A pleasant evening was spent beginning with a dinner served in the dining room with Jack Slater presiding at the organ throughout.

Mr. Harries is the only son of the late John Harries and Mary Ann Walker. He was born and lived in the Cheapside area in his younger years, later moving to Toronto where he has had a successful law practice for a number of years.

Guests of Mr. Harries were present from Selkirk, Fisherville, Jarvis and Dunnville.
