being grossly unfair" this was the comment that Mac Steel. Secretary - Treasurer of the Norfolk Vegetable Growers Marketing Board, made following a meeting of this group recently.

Mr. Steel, a Waterford area farmer, was commenting on the fact that York Farms Ltd. are not contracting area farmers for growing sweet corn this year. Instead, the Company is renting land for the purpose of growing it hemselves.

Mr. Steel and his roup feel that this is just another step towards "total vertical integration" in this particular crop. "Business's such as York Farms are slowly squeezing the individual farmer out of this particular facet of farming'

Mr. Steel feels that the sweet corn market will be eventually totally removed from the individual farmer's control if this is al-
