Bowlers Compete In Torontc

Following their win in the Zone B 1 Bowling Tournament held in Port Rowan recently, the Hagersville Legion Auxiliary Bowling team captained by Jean Jackew, competed in Toronto on Saturday April 7.

Members of the group who competed in this Southern Ontario Tournament held at the Sportsman's Lanes on Seventh Street in Toronto, were: Dorothy Soinmerville, Marj Garmon, Agnes Desjardins, Marion Busche and Pat Cotts. Upon their arrival in Toronto, the bowlers, together with a number of their husbands who accompanied as moral supporters, assembled at the Sir Winston Churchill Legion Branch No. 3, prior to registering in the afternoon for their divisional bowling.

Mrs. Joy McLarty, a member of the Legion Auxiliary, who originally organized an Auxiliary Bowling Team sometime ago, also

Explorers Enjoy Film

Roll Call was responded to by 12 members of Hagersville Explorer Girls, following the opening exercises which was led by President Joan Shoup, on Wednesday April 4.

Treasurer Laurie Anderson collected the offering, which totalled $1.10.

Leader Mrs. Julie Rule read a story about Jane who lost hope too easily, and didn't try to do her best at any task she started, until she saw how well her friends did some of their work. Then, she tried her very best. A poem entitled "God Is So Great" closed this portion of the meeting.

Next week the Roll Call will be replied by telling the Most Interesting Thing Done on the Winter Break. All girls adjourned to the Library where a film entitled "Different, Yet Alike" was thoroughly enjoyed. It showed that even though some may have yellow, brown or white skin, that doesn't make a difference in the way they may act, think or work. The entire world needs men and women of many races to do research work, be doctors, missionaries, scientists, etc.

Following the film, many questions were asked by leader Edna Esselment, prior to the girls going into the Christian Education Wing for many lively games.

accompanied the group to Toronto for the competition. Auxiliaries who placed first and second respectively were Newmarket and New Toronto, winning over the other 46 league entries for the day.

Although not finishing in the top ten winner's group, suitable tokens were awarded the Hagersville Ladies for their afternoon efforts. The group enjoyed dining-out prior to leaving Toronto, then briefly stopped off at the Port Credit Legion Branch for a time of friendly chit-chat and getting acquainted.

Excellent Response To Campaign

To date, many local organizations in and around Hagersville have sent in their cheques to the area Cancer Campaign. This response has been most gratifying, since the canvass actually just commenced on Saturday, April 7, one week later than anticipated.

Special mention is made regarding the generous donation from the Clanbrassil Womens' Institute, which was received by this Campaign Chairman before

Friendship Club Meets

Twenty members of the weekly Hagersville Friendship Club met in the Parish Hall on Thursday afternoon, March 29. Sympathy was extended to the families of two former faithful members, Doris McKeen and William Moyer, who passed away recently. President Madeline Young stated that Bill was available for any tasks that needed an extra hand or two. Also, his efficiency at keeping the pennies in the bank was a job he did well.

Following the singing of the prayer at 4:30 lunch was served, with

More Exhibitions For Art Show

Convener Marie Hewitt, together with other committee members - Barb Guest, Margaret Loughheed and Margaret VanLoon, have tremendous plans and surprises in store for all those who attend the Arts and Crafts Show to be held on Friday, April 27 from 2-5 and 7-9:30.

This event was instigated and arranged by the capable members of Hagersville's Triple F Club and will be held in the Hagersville United Church. The Adult Opportunity Centre at Canfield for Retarded Adults is the Club's project, so therefore it is hoped many will purchase tickets and attend to help these adults who cannot help themselves.

Several more who will be exhibiting and displaying will be Mrs. J. Robinson of R. R. 1, Selkirk, Mr. Ted Stephens of Hagersville, Mrs. J. Robbins of R. R. 1 Fisherville and oil paintings on show done by Oliver Sayer of Hagersville.

There will be added features of a Bake Table and a Tea Room. Also, there will be an opportunity for those who wish to stop and quilt, as a quilt will be set up in the old-fashioned quilting frames. It is suggested if possible to attend in the afternoon, therefore you may come again in the evening hours - in order to see so many interesting features.

"Chuck" Misner, member of Port Dover Legion Branch, supplied and cooked the 75 pounds of fish to those in attendance - everyone stating "they were just delicious." He was capably assisted with kitchen duties by Ted Another friendly evening of fun and frolic was held at the Hagersville Legion Hall on Thursday, April 5 when Port Dover Legion Branch and their Auxiliary were guests. Due to the many activities in town and about that evening (hockey play-offs) etc., there was a smaller attendance than usual for the evening of hoss, darts and cribbage.

Branch 164 and Auxiliary will return to Port Dover on Thursday evening, April 12 when that Branch will host another friendly Sports and Games Night.

The ceremony was officiated by Reverend Martin Rule, with the wedding music being played by Mrs. VanLoon.

Lisa McCormick was flower girl and David McCormick the ring-bearer, both are cousins of the bride.

The bridesmaids wore floor-length gowns of yellow floral polyester crepe with velvet sash, the maid of honor in the same, but with an overdress of yellow sheer. They carried yellow daisies.

Mr. Glen Simon, friend of the groom was best man. Ushers were Dennis Howden, brother of the groom, Mr. Doug Miller and Mr. David Doughty, friends of the groom.

For the reception, held in the Christian Education room of the Church, the wedding party received the 90 guests attending. The bride's mother was wearing a floor-length gown of green chiffon with a corsage of yellow roses with silver accessories. The groom's mother was wearing a floor-length gown of multi-coloured brushed polyester cotton with purple accessories and a corsage of yellow daisies.

At the dance in the evening at the Hagersville Community Centre there were 180 guests present. Guests arrived from Hagersville, Jarvis, Port Dover, Simcoe, Brantford, Cayuga, Mt. Forest, Preston, Fergus, Toronto and Sarnia.

For travelling the bride chose a three-piece navy and white pantsuit with white accessories and a single camelia as a corsage.

Sandusk W.I. Meet

By Mrs. William Bray The Sandusk W.I. met at the home of Mrs. Merrill Nie on Thursday afternoon with all six members present.

The meeting opened in the usual manner with the Ode, Mary Stewart Collect and the Lords prayer. The minutes and correspondence was read, a large amount of business was dealt with and donations were made to the camp for retarded children and also to the Cancer Society.

Mrs. Leo Mulkins, programme convener called on Mrs. William Nicol who gave an interesting talk on the motto, "Don't itch for something for what you are not prepared to scratch."

gave the topic, "Some new ideas in home decorating," by telling of some of the advantages of new papers and paints available today.

Mrs. Mulkins was elected chairlady and Mrs. Craig Werner was elected Secretary for the election of officers. Our members being so few, the officers were all put back in by acclamation.

The meeting was handed back to the president who expressed her thanks to the members for their cooperation, followed by the Queen and Institute Grace.

Mrs. Craig Werner, lunch committee and the hostess served a delicious lunch.

Students Tour Farms

More than 60 pupils, together with teachers of Rooms 4 and 5 - Mrs. P. Fearman and Mrs. J. Smith of Hagersville Northview School, enjoyed a "different" outing on Wednesday, April 4. Several mothers of the children also accompanied to help with various duties, when three local farms were visited.

This gave students an excellent opportunity of learning, understanding and appreciating spring in various forms in the barn and the barnyard.

In the morning, the farm of Mr. and Mrs. H. VanLoon of R. R. 1, Hagersville, near Little Buffalo and the farm of Mr. and Mrs. A. Glenn Jones, of R. R. 1, Hagersville, on the Nanticoke Sideroad, were visited. In the afternoon at 1:15, the bus loaded with the same interested group, departed for the farm of Mr. and Mrs. Laverne Parrington of R. R. 3, Hagersville, near Clanbrassil.

This was a full day of adventure and experiences that some of the children not accustomed to "farm living" will never forget, and certainly a "tip-of-the-hat" must be given teachers who arranged the outing, the farmers visited, the Principal J. R. Lundy and authorizing same.
