Dr. J. W. E. Newbery, who assisted in the organization and establishment of Huntington College of Laurentian University at Sudbury in 1958-59, and served as its' President and Principal, has been chosen "Citizen of the Year" of Sudbury.

He was nominated by the Human Rights Brotherhood in recognition of his work with the Canadian Indians and an organization of the East Indian community, of which he is a director.

Library News

by Pat Mackereth
From the Hagersville Public Library this week comes a potpourri of news - little bits from here and there, but they add up to some interesting happenings.

The next films for Senior Citizens will be shown at 1:30 p.m. on Monday, April 30, at the library. Further news about what films will be featured will be in next week's paper. As usual, there will be a sociable cup of tea served after the movies.

The Library Guild has begun an adult mosaic workshop. Eleven people came out to the first meeting on April 12, and started their individual mosaic "masterpieces."

It was decided by those present that, as long as the group could function successfully in a completely informal atmosphere, no leaders would be chosen. This is a help-each-other, ask - if - you - don't - know set-up.

A mystery letter arrived at the library last week, but its proper destination is unknown. Addressed merely to the Librarian, R. R. 1, Hagersville and sent from the Winnipeg office of a company that distributes a well-known line of electronic equipment, it included information about background music to something, but didn't specify to what. Evidently, it was an answer to an unsigned letter, but from whom? If you have been expecting a letter of this sort, please inquire at the library, and set our minds and yours at ease.

The Library Guild would like to reach various local groups to find out how we can better serve the library and our community. If you are a member of any lodge, club, church group, etc., we would appreciate hearing from your secretary. Please phone our president, Martha Allen, 768-5328, or send her a list of the officers of your group, to R. R. 2, Hagersville.

Lilacs Bloom From May To July

Lilacs are easy to grow under a wide range of soil and climatic conditions. By planting several different strains, you can extend the period of bloom from May to July, says D. B. McNeill, horticultural specialist, Ontario Ministry of Agriculture and Food. They can be planted as a fast-growing hedge or individually.

Plant breeders have been working with lilacs for many years to develop hardy strains that can withstand winter conditions. As a result, gardeners have several hundred varieties to choose from.

French hybrid lilacs are the most common variety. Single and double flowered types are available in shades of blue, red, mauve, and white. These lilacs bloom profusely in late May.

In their research, plant breeders developed a very hardy strain called the Preston hybrids. These late-blooming lilacs are descended from oriental species and are available in many colors. Preston hybrids grow to about 15 feet in height and are relatively free from suckers. They make excellent screening plants.

The Japanese tree lilac is excellent for small gardens. The tree grows about 20 feet high and is covered with fragrant white blossoms in July.

Lilacs are an excellent choice in the spring and summer garden.

The second meeting of the Jarvis Calf Club was held on April 4, at the farm of Keith Stallwood.

The meeting was called to order, and the minutes of the last meeting were read by the secretary.

Our leader, Ken Mulkins, described the major project in the member's manual. Jack Biggar gave interesting pointers on how to judge and pick out a calf for our project for the fair.

We judged a class of yearling heifers with Jack Biggar giving the official placing. Also, we judged a class of Holstein cows with Jack again giving us some points on judging cows and the official placings.

The meeting was adjourned and lunch was served by the hostess.

Division Training Day Held

A training day was held for the leaders in the Girl Guide Movement in the Warren Division March 31st. The training, which was attended by approximately 40 volunteer leaders, was held at the Caledonia Presbyterian Church hall. In the morning, two trainings were held, one for Brownie leaders and one for Guide leaders, with Commissioners and Secretaries attending whichever one they preferred.

At noon, everyone joined together for a lovely lunch. After lunch Mrs. W. Burley, Caledonia Distric Commissioner introduced the head table guests which included Mrs. H. Proctor, Training Advisor for the Division; Mrs. A. Sabiston of Dunnville, Warren Division Commissioner; Mrs. R. Booth of Simcoe, Commissioner for Niagara Area; and the two trainers Mrs. D. Wagner of Beamsville and Mrs. P. Henson of Port Dover.

Mrs. Booth brought greetings from the Area and explained that the new Niagara Area office which is in Simcoe is to be used for references. And the area co-ordinators for the various committees are to help give information. After wishing Warren Division continued success with Guiding, Mrs. Booth presented two long service pins (for ten years in the Movement), one to Mrs. D. Alger and one to Miss Marilyn Burke of Hagersville. Miss Burke is presently the Commissioner for Hagersville District. It includes Jarvis, Selkirk and Hagersville. During her ten years in Guiding, she has worked with Brownies; Guides and been District Secretary. Brownies, Guides and been District Secretary.

The afternoon session was held with everyone together, led by Mrs. Henson and Mrs. Wagner. Activities and areas in which the Brownie, Guide, Ranger and Cadet leaders can share were discussed. Within the training as well, games were incorporated. They can be used with the girls, who after all, are the most important part of the programme. The day ended with Taps.

Attending the training from Jarvis were Mrs. I. Church, Brownie leader; and Mrs. D. Perry, Guide leader; and from Selkirk Miss Marilyn Nie and Mrs. C. Williams, Guide leaders. From Hagersville, those who attended were Miss Burke; Mrs. R. Bergman and Mrs. Lois Gordon, leaders of the First Brownie Pack; Mrs. Frank Lambert, Brown Owl of the Second Brownie Pack; Miss Pat Petracca, Ranger leader; Mrs. G. Stallwood, District Secretary; Mrs. B. Treblecock and Mrs. M. Uzelman, Guide leaders and Mrs. D. Vanni, Public Relations Secretary.
