

Hagersville Legion Annual Christmas Party Held

One of the most well-organized annual festive parties was held in the Hagersville Legion Auditorium on Saturday evening, December 1. This much-looked-forward-to event by all employees was sponsored by Heaslip Motors Limited of Main Street South Hagersville.

Greeting all guests at the door were President of Heaslip's, Mr. Jeff Heaslip, together with his two sons, Clayton and Peter. Roses were presented to each lady in attendance by Mrs. Joan Heaslip, and Mrs. Eleanor Heaslip. Sitting down to the bounteous turkey dinner were 75, which included those members employed by Heaslip

Motors as either Office Staff, bus drivers, shop workers, etc., together with their wives, husbands or friends. The banquet was catered to by the Ladies Auxiliary of Legion Branch 164, and was enjoyed by all those present. Mr. Clayton Heaslip acted as Master of Ceremonies during the supper - hour, at which time numerous gifts were distributed to various recipients. Following the sumptuous meal, the evening's entertainment was provided by Paul Brothers and Shirley of Kirkton, Ont. which included comedy, songs, patter and barbershop harmony. The remainder of the evening, was spent in dancing to music by Mr. Doug Burnett of Brampton, a Disc Jockey of much renown who had the dance - floor participants moving at a well-kept pace throughout the various routine numbers. Those winning Spot Dance prizes were Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Banks, Mable Isaacs and Don Laidlaw, also Marg

Bain and Lloyd Hurst. The door prize consisted of a Portable and was drawn of Elimination Program with some discussion regarding who to the final ticket. It was decided that A. Esment not be the ticket therefore Mrs. D. Hewitt declared Jack Skinner as winner, which proved to be relevant, since was co-ordinator of the entire evening.

Mr. Ken Fryer, Harris Street, Hagersville, served as photographer for this, first Staff Christmas Party of the area, where everyone decided as "biggest and best ever."

Mitchell-Stackhouse

Hubert, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Fehrman, Nanticoke, Ont. and the former Colleen Kelly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Kelly of Brantford were united in marriage on October 27th in Brantford, Ont. (Staff Photo)

A quiet but pretty candlelight wedding was performed on Friday evening, November 30, 1973 by the Rev. Joseph Diference in Oakville Methodist Church for the marriage of Darlene Stackhouse of Hagersville to Gary Mitchell of Jarvis.

The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Stackhouse of Peterborough, Ont., and the groom is the son of Mrs. Marjorie Mitchell and the late Mr. Stanley Mitchell of Jarvis.

The bride entered the church on the arm of her father wearing a beautiful hand made floor length knitted dress with attached hood. The sleeves were loosely knitted bell shaped, tucked into a tight cuff. The skirt and hood were in the petite popcorn stitch. She carried a single red rose.

The bride's mother wore a full length gown of carnation pink in pois de crepe, with a corsage of pink orchid. The groom's mother chose a crimson red sculptured velvet dress with a white orchid corsage. Mrs. Howard Kitchen, with whom the bride resided, wore a turquoise pois de crepe, with a pink carnation corsage. She also helped receive the guests.

As the couple were unattended, Miss Brenda Stackhouse and Mr. Darryl Mitchell signed the wedding Register.

The reception for 40 guests was held at the Royal Oak Hotel at Oakville. Mr. Fred Reichheld acted as Master of ceremonies for several toasts. The couple left on a short honeymoon to Toronto and Buffalo, continuing later to Florida.

The groom is employed by Labatt's Co. of London, where they will reside. The bride was a nurse at West Haldimand Hospital.

anniversary of Gary's brother and sister-in-law, Wayne and Donna Mitchell of Hagersville. Guests were present from Owen Sound, Toronto, London, Hamilton, Peterborough, Simcoe and Jarvis.

The occasion was also the fourth wedding
