Knox Auxiliary

Mrs. Lillie Miller was hostess to the Knox Church Auxiliary for the February meeting Tuesday, February 20. Mrs. Ada Duncan, President, opened the meeting with a poem. This was followed by all joining in singing a hymn.

The scripture reading and Lord's Prayer was also read. Roll call was answered by a verse containing the word "Heart".

A dainty lunch was served by the hostess and committee.

by Jack Lakey
The Jarvis Kings trounced Fisherville Penguins 4-0 to take over sole possession of first place in the Hagersville Bantam League.

Late in the first period, Jarvis opened the scoring with Dwight McLeod's power play goal at 20:25. Brian Montague got the assist. Brian Veldhuis' goal-mouth pass to Wayne O'Shell at 5:45 of the second made the score 2-0 after a listless first period by both clubs. The Kings boosted their score to 3-0 with Ralph Fess' short-handed goal at 11:30. Dale Vaughn drew the assist. Jarvis' final goal came at 14:25 of the second with Wayne O'Shell deflecting Dwight McLeod's slap-shot.

The shutout was Jarvis' goalie Don

Walker's second of the season. Contrary to prior reports, Jarvis forward Dale de La Fosse could be back in action as early as next week. The absence of the smooth skating centre was particularly noticed after a ragged first period against Fisherville.

Our club and we voted on them. The name the "Knit Knacks" won. Our new member Darlene Doughty is to bring the design for our club next meeting. Mary Doughty adjourned the business.

Everyone was given a sample of golden, double knitted material to put in their record books. Everyone was also given a piece of cotton knit to put in their record books. We then read about using patterns, adjusting them, altering them, and cutting and marking. The meeting ended at 4:30.

Everyone read their home assignment, and we were told our next meeting is Saturday March 3 at Mrs. Leo Montague's home at 1 o'clock. Some people brought some names for
