

HAGERSVILLE Highlights

W.I. Bid For Box Lunches

Mrs. Arthur Roth, Victoria Street, Hagersville, was hostess for the Women's Institute meeting on Tuesday evening, February 20. This was their Fun Night, which showed 10 members and two visitors were present. President, Mrs. Sherman Beck welcomed each one to the meeting and read a poem on "Love" - pertaining to Valentine month. Responding to Roll Call, each answered giving a poem or saying with the words "love" or "heart" contained in it. Correspondence was read regarding the spring meeting to be held in the Springvale United Church on March 12, at 1:30 p.m., with Hagersville to hand in a program for the month of March.

It was agreed to make a donation to the Camp Committee for the Mentally Retarded. This was followed by various members reporting on their convenerhips. Mrs. William Mitchell reported that there are presently two 4-H clubs on "Sportswear from Knits," and Mrs. Howard Hewitt is assisting her in these clubs.

Mrs. Hewitt will be leading the Garden Club in the spring. Any girls who are interested should contact this leader.

Members were asked if they had any antiques of 75 years or more.

Six Eight Club Meets

On February 15, there were 29 members and visitors present to enjoy a delicious dinner at Enzo's Restaurant at Hagersville.

After completing the bountiful meal, everyone returned to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ashley Allison to play cards and crokinole. Winners in the ladies' hosiery were Kay Swayze, and Jean Stallard; Men's - Fred Ebert and Reni Romkes, and the crokinole prize was won by Tina VanderMarel.

The social committee provided an attractive birthday cake which was served with tea and coffee. Courtesy remarks were given by Mrs. Edna Smith.

The March meeting will be held at Dorothy Quanbury's home, with Joanne Romkes and Jean Stallard on the lunch committee. Visitors for the month will be Edna Smith and Emily Sherlock.

that could be loaned or given to the Erland Lee Home. Hostess for the March meeting will be Mrs. Margaret Loughheed of Main Street North.

An interesting demonstration of flower arrangements was capably given by Mrs. A. C. Smith. Several members added some humorous stories for this Fun Night and Mrs. Roth showed quilts being made by herself and Mrs. Edward James. Acting as auctioneer, Philip Roth received high bids on the box lunches the members had brought with them. More ladies are solicited to be active in W.I. work. Meetings are each month on the third Tuesday.

Explorers Decorate Indian Bracelets

Hagersville Explorers met in the Christian Education Wing of the United Church on Wednesday afternoon February 28. There were 15 girls in attendance, with several of the girls still absent due to sickness. Joan Shoup, President, opened the meeting with the Explorer purpose, prayer and motto. Secretary Anne Brown read the minutes, with all girls responding to Roll Call with any current event items they had found during the week, pertaining to our present study on India. This study on India. This proved most interesting and informative, and will be repeated as a roll call for the next week.

Girls taking part in the Worship Service were Kim Norval reading the Scripture as taken from the 23rd Psalm. This was followed by Sara Jane Kiefer playing a selection, I Love You Truly on the piano. Karen Esselment closed with prayer which followed the reading of an inter-

Attend Course

A weekly course in first-aid, given by the St. John Ambulance Corps., is being held at the Hagersville Community Centre each Thursday evening.

Hagersville Volunteer Firemen, together with their Chief, William McClarty are availing themselves of this opportunity for a refresher course. The series began Thursday, March 1, and will continue for several weeks.

Friendship Club Meets

There was a small attendance at the weekly Friendship Club at the Parish Hall on Thursday, February 22. Several get well greetings were distributed amongst those present for signatures. These cards were sent to Hilda Winger, Hilda Atkinson and Doris McKeen.

It was agreed to permit the members of the Triple F Club to use the tables for the Hoss and Dessert party on Saturday afternoon and an announcement was made regarding this event.

Following the singing of the prayer at 4:30, lunch was served. No committee was in charge for preparing the "goodies," but everyone was most helpful and co-operative in sharing the load.

Prizes for the afternoon were won by - Mrs. Evans, high with 291; Jean Young, second with 279; Low, Mrs. Doman with 158. The hosiery prize of the day went to Mel Shildrick who achieved (2).

esting story by leader Julie Rule.

This story was about a small girl in India who had to grow up in a hurry because her mother was killed by one of the worst enemies in India, the leopard. A handcraft period proved most interesting with each girl making and decorating a bracelet - as mentioned in our Indian study. Everyone joined in the Explorer circle for the closing and prayer.

Honor Music Students

Several music students of Mrs. Clare Dennis, King-Street East, Hagersville, have recently been successful in their music examinations held in Hamilton, which were set by the Royal Conservatory of Music. These students were - Barbara Armstrong, Grade III Piano with Honours, and Kathy Millett, Grade I Piano, with Honours.
