Farm Land

cial Board is no longer able to cope with planning, he said. "We don't have rural men down there. It's mainly urban men with urban ideas. We should have rural men down there."

A panel consisting of Keith Richardson, deputy-warden of Haldimand, Stan Sheppard, member of the Committee of Adjustment for Walpole township, Allan Stitt, chairman of the Planning Board for Cayuga and North Cayuga, Shirley Troubridge, ex-clerk of Seneca, Arthur Bradford, clerk of Canboro, Craig Schwyer, member of the Planning Board for Rainham and Harold Cruishank, a farmer who has been a clerk, councillor and reeve of Oneida, explained "Planning in Haldimand County" - or lack of it.

The panel, moderated by agriculture representative Ken Best, defined the functions of the Committee of Adjustment, Planning Board, Official Plan and Zoning By-law and then fielded questions from the audience.

One member of the audience pointed out that every urban centre located in a fertile 90 mile band stretching from Quebec to Windsor is planning a certain amount of urban growth. "How much farm land are we going to have in 25 years?"

In answer, Mr. Sheppard of R. R. 1 Selkirk, said the aim of the townships is to try to guide people towards an existing hamlet instead of having them spread all over the countryside. However, this is very difficult because the area around the village or hamlet is zoned "right up tight" for agriculture and you're only allowed one lot to a farm, he said. So, you find scattered growth throughout rural areas.

Doug Greenfield of R. R. 4, Hagersville also questioned the right of the Committee of Adjustment to grant severances to members of a farm family. The average Canadian family moves once every five years and there is nothing to stop the farm member from selling the home to an urban family, he said. "Shouldn't we put a stop on severances until we have an official plan?"

Mr. Sheppard said it's very difficult to deny a farmer this request - especially since it's for a member of a family.

Eric Grove, director of the Haldimand - Norfolk study is checking into this same matter with regard to severances, Mr. Best said.

Hagersville Police News

The shortest month of the year was a busy one for the members of the police department, taking into consideration that it was short-staffed one man, who is away to Police College in Aylmer, Ont.

The officers investigated 4 Motor Vehicle Collisions which resulted in no injury but heavy property damage; radar has been used extensively through-out February because of the ideal road and weather conditions, which seem to increase the flow and speed of traffic on the streets. 45 charges were laid under the Highway Traffic Act, 23 traffic warnings were given out, three charges under the original members of the Stratford Boys Band in the 1930's. From here, he went on to the Royal Canadian Regiment Band in London, where he now holds numerous positions and has played on several radio shows.

The Hagersville Concert Band, under the direction of Mr. Shippey, played Gallant Men, selections from Paint Your Wagon, Old Comrades, Suite in F by Holst, Theme and Rock Out and Classical Gas. A tuba solo was also played by Janet Lint.

The "Annie Get Your Gun" chorus sang two Irish melodies before switching to songs taken from the Wild West musical written by Irving Berlin.

Mr. Sheppard said it's very difficult to deny a farmer this request - especially since it's for a member of a family.

Eric Grove, director of the Haldimand - Norfolk study is checking into this same matter with regard to severances, Mr. Best said.
