IN MEMORIAM

EDSALL - In loving memory of a dear husband and father William C. Edsall, who passed away March 21, 1972.

"A year has quickly slipped away,
But yet - it seems much more,
Since you left this worldly plain
To stand on heaven's shore.

There is a vacant chair,
A smile we'd love to see,
A hand we wish that we could clasp
A voice we'd gladly heed.

Some folks shall think the wound is healed,
But little do they know,
Through many sleepless nights,
Secret tears still flow.

There was no time to tell you,
How very much we cared,
No chance to say a last farewell,
No moments left to share.

But there will be a bright, glad day,
When we too shall enter heaven's gate,
And then we'll meet you there.
And tell you loved to face:
Deeply lived in life; sadly missed in death by loving wife Emily and daughter Beverley-Ruth.

GIVE... so more will live

Cookie Campaign Sure Sign Of Spring

Flowers, fashion and romance are important signs of spring for many of the female sex, but not for the Girl Guides. Spring is much more - it's the time for the annual cookie campaign. It all begins in March when Brownies, Rangers, Guides and Cadets throughout the province start knocking on doors to take orders for cookies.

Dedicated to make the girls of today better citizens of tomorrow, Guiding stresses the importance of giving service to others.

Last year, the Ontario girls in brown and blue sold almost one and one-quarter million boxes. This year, they hope to do better.

The campaign is conducted in two phases. First, the uniformed girls go from door-to-door taking orders. Then, when the cookies arrive, they retrace

The only province-wide appeal for funds made each year, the cookie campaign provides approximately 50% of the revenue needed to administer Guiding in Ontario, adult training for volunteer leaders, and maintain the companies which are operated for the girls.
