Nanticoke C.G.I.T. Hold 25th Banquet

The WH Record, Thursday, May 17, 1973 - 5

by Helen Snowden
On Monday, May 7th the Nanticoke Community C.G.I.T. held its 25th Mother and Daughter banquet in Christ Church parish hall. Fifty girls, mothers, leaders and guests thoroughly enjoyed the fine smorgasbord of casseroles and salads prepared by the mothers and leaders.

President, Karen Hobbs presided at the head table, proposing a toast to the Queen, after the singing of the Grace, "For health and strength and daily food."

Susan Lindsay invited the girls to join her in a toast to the Mothers, to which Mrs. Gerald McKenzie responded. Between courses of the dinner and while the tables were being cleared, Cheryl Smith, and Jennifer Snowden provided some fun by leading sing-songs.

Head table guests, introduced by Karen, included Mrs. Robert Doughty, representing the U.C.W. and who was a devoted leader for many years; Mrs. Arnold Creaser; Mrs. Garnet Hobbs; Mrs. Stanley Tomkins, representing the A.C.W. and Mrs. K. Gulati and her young daughters Pat and Martha.

Martha Banfield capably expressed appreciation to the six ladies, three from each church, who had come to help by serving and cleaning up the kitchen. One of them, Mrs. Harry Evans, had assisted at the first banquet and also at many subsequent ones.

Brenda Gleave gave the secretary's report outlining the year's activities and Jennifer Snowden submitted the treasurer's report.

The Junior leader, Sharon Stone, introduced Mrs. K. Gulati, a native of India presently teaching at Port Dover Composite School, who delighted the gathering by talking about the customs of her home country. Cheryl Smith thanked the speaker and presented her with a token of appreciation.

For the next half hour the girls provided entertainment in the form of hilarious skits. Then came the Graduation Ceremony, an event anticipated by the girls during their years in the group.

This year's graduate, Karen Hobbs, having completed five years in C.G.I.T. and wearing a pink carnation corsage was seated by the linen covered table which was adorned by a single lighted white taper representing the living Christ.

The Senior leader, Helen Snowden, outlined briefly the original organization of C.G.I.T. in the community and its aims in helping to give girls a Christian basis for their lives. In her valedictory address, Karen expressed the value of C.G.I.T. to her, and told of the wonderful experience it had been to represent our area at Camp has become part of the fabric of the community was emphasized by the presence of Mrs. Howard Kitchen, who had attended the original banquet with her daughter Ruth (Mrs. Ken Smith) whose two daughters Cheryl and Patti are now members. Mrs. Kitchen also had 5 other daughters who were in C.G.I.T. Also attending was Mrs. Norman Erwin, guest of Brenda Gleave, who had graduated from C.G.I.T. thirteen years ago.

Missing from the occasion was Mrs. Graydon Field, one of the first leaders who stayed on for many years.
