

Friends 'N Neighbors

by Jessie Miller
Mr. and Mrs. David Manson and Mrs. John Lowes of Hamilton attended Knox Anniversary supper on Friday evening.

The beautiful autumn shaded mums in Knox Church on Sunday were from the funeral of the late Charles Ineson, member of Knox Church, who was buried on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Almieda of Allenhurst, New Jersey (nee Ellen Ineson), were in Jarvis, attending the funeral of Mr. Charles Ineson, father of Mrs. Almieda.

Long time residents of Jarvis will recall Sir Edwin Leather, the new Governor of Bermuda. He was born in Toronto and raised in Hamilton where his father, who is 80 still lives. The home of the Leather's living in Jarvis is the large brick house duplexed, at one time used as an infant shelter, with Mrs. Pauline Yallop as matron for the Children's aid. Mrs. Edward Jones, whose husband was postmaster for many years in Jarvis was a Leather. Mrs. Dr. Newell was their daughter Florence Jones. Look for picture of Sir Edwin in Saturday's Spectator.

Mr. and Mrs. Larry

Cassidy spent Sunday in Toronto visiting their daughter Kristen who is a patient in the Sick Children's Hospital.

We are pleased to report that Mr. Fred Roulston is home after being hospitalized in Hagersville and St. Joseph's, Hamilton.

Mr. and Mrs. J.B. Linklater, their son, John, daughters Betsy and Barbara, Mr. Douglas Deller, Mrs. Ben Johnson and Miss Myrtle Johnson were in Barrie on Sunday attending the funeral of Margaret Bailey, daughter of Doctor James and Mrs. Bailey.

Anglican Synod Hears Bishop

"As your bishop, I feel a deep personal commitment to consultation, openness, expression of feelings as well as ideas, and as free communication as is possible amongst fallible people amidst the distemper of our times" said Bishop Bothwell to the 99th Session of the Synod of the Diocese of Niagara, meeting in Hamilton last week-end.

The Bishop's charge, his first, came at the opening service in Christ's Church Cathedral, and was later discussed by the 400 or so clergy and lay delegates in small groups.

As well as leadership style, the Bishop dealt with flexibility in Parish life and with a theological position he called "liberalism" as distinct from both liberalism and conservatism.

The major piece of business tackled by the Synod was the adoption of a report to re-organize the diocese, creating more deaneries and providing for better geographical representation on its Executive committee. Rural Deans, re-named Executive Deans will be elected by the Deanery Council which is composed of both clergy and laity. This procedure was contained in an amendment proposed by the Haldimand Deanery Council.

Under the re-organization, Haldimand Deanery will be unchanged, but will be grouped with the Deanery of Hamilton West in a new Archdeaconry of Wentworth and Haldimand.

The Synod had first-hand reports on the work of the Church in the north and overseas. The Rt. Rev. Douglas Hambidge, Bishop of Caledonia, spoke of the community life in northern B.C. villages and appealed for a feeling of unity and a caring fellowship between the church in the north and west and in the more populous areas of eastern Canada.

The Rev. Paul Moore who has served in parishes in St. Catharines and Hamilton, has just returned from an assignment teaching theology in the Solomon Islands. He told Synod that change is affecting even the South Sea Islands and the Canadian Church had been asked to help train native priests in the Diocese of Melanesia.

A resolution from one of the discussion groups that Synod does not endorse the principle of the ordination of women to the priesthood produced considerable debate and was defeated in a recorded vote.

From the many projects that work under the Diocesan Council on Planning and Programmes, Synod heard from three: the Post-Ordination Training of the Clergy; Spera Niagara - a drug addict rehabilitation programme and St. Matthew's House - a social service work in down town Hamilton.

It was recommended that the Bishop's charge to Synod be circulated to the Deaneries and Parishes for study during the winter.

Jarvis W.I. Meet

by Jessie Miller

Mrs. S. J. Church entertained the ladies for the November meeting of Jarvis Women's Institute on Wednesday November 7.

Mrs. Bob Smuck was in the chair as President and Mrs. Carl Jaques acted as Secretary. She announced that Jarvis would be the locale of the District Annual and the Spring Rally would be on March 11 in Caledonia. Also a letter was received from the Institute Ward in Hong Kong - Ho Po May, who has been in hospital for some months. A letter was also received from the official in charge, stating she had undergone lengthy spinal treatment. It was explained that a Christmas gift would not arrive in time so it was decided to send $10.00 to the organization to buy a suitable Christmas gift.

Studies and preparations are now beginning for the annual Christmas Vesper Service to be held Sunday evening, December 23. An outing that is being anticipated eagerly is a bus trip to Toronto on Saturday, November 17 when the girls will shop at Square One and go on to the Ice Capades at Maple Leaf Gardens.

In August, Sharon Field was fortunate to represent this area at the Ontario Camp Council at Ryde Lake where she met representatives from all over Ontario.

The Group is in its twenty-fifth year of continuous operation. Such a healthy start shows well for this season.

Mrs. Fields was program Convener and called on Mrs. Duncan to read a short item on the "Grandma of today." Mrs. Fields read a poem and gave the motto. Mrs. Brinell read literature on the sending for data regarding Crafts and announced that they would be moving to Baden, Ont. next month. She stated that they had lived in Jarvis 7 years.

Mrs. Duncan then gave a demonstration on making articles of beauty out of discarded candle sticks from bleach bottles, Christmas trees from plastic bottles, nylon toys from nylon and coloured Christmas Lampshades from egg cartons and marbles.

O Canada and the Institute grace were sung. Mrs. Smuck and Mrs. Church served lunch.

Mrs. Wm. Blake made the courtesy remarks.

Christmas Card Deadlines

It will soon be time to mail your Christmas cards, especially if you send them to foreign countries.

Last Wednesday, the Post Office Department announced deadlines for mailing greeting cards and reminded Canadians of the rates that apply to such mailings.

Three different rates apply to Christmas cards sent to foreign countries other than the United States. Cards sent in sealed envelopes must bear first class mail postage, i.e. 15 cents for up to one ounce. They will automatically be despatched by Air Mail.

The Post Office recommends that these envelopes carry an "AIR MAIL" sticker, to ensure proper handling by foreign post offices.

Cards sent in unsealed envelopes may be sent by air mail for 12 cents for up to one ounce, or by surface mail for 8 cents for up to one ounce. Cards sent by surface means will be forwarded by air for part or all of the distance depending on airline space.

Unsealed envelopes should be sent no later than November 9th to the following: Europe (Except Great Britain) The Middle East, India, Sri Lanka, Pakistan, Bangladesh, South Africa, Rhodesia, Malawi, Ghana, Kenya, Uganda, Tanzania, Zambia, Australia, The Fiji Islands, New Zealand, Japan and Hong Kong.

November 23 is the last date for unsealed card mailings to Great Britain.

The deadline for mailing sealed Christmas cards to all countries at the 12 and 15 cent rates is December 6. For Great Britain, the deadline is December 13.

The rates for Cards sent to addresses in North America is eight cents for first class mail (Sealed envelopes) and six cents for surface mail (Unsealed envelopes.)

Canada Post Office customers should note that the date for Canadian destination cards is the 13th December. For local mail the deadline is the 17th December.

For surface mail destined for the United States, the last mailing date is the 10th of December. For air mail to the States, December 15 is the last day.

A Look At Business

Jarvis' Main Street restaurant is back in business with a change in name and a bright, fresh new look.

Cowan's "light lunch and take-out" eating place just reopened two weeks ago and business is booming.

Ellard and Dorothy Cowan first bought the old "Marg and Al's" restaurant nine and a half years ago when the army camp closed down. They ran the Eldor restaurant for 4 - 1/2 years before renting it to Burke's. The eating house has been closed since March of this year.

The couple were originally trying to sell the business, but changed their minds and decided to run the restaurant with a more limited menu.

Mr. Cowan is a cook at the boy's training school, so Mrs. Cowan is managing the business. Diane Blundell is their one employee.

"We used to run all kinds of meals," Mrs. Cowan said. But now there will be a special at lunch along with some other light lunch menu listings and take-outs. And, it will only stay open from 9 - 7.

Besides changing the menu and opening hours, the Cowans have renovated the tiny kitchen, cedar shingles, new floor covering and pretty flowered wallpaper gives it a cheery rejuvenated air.

Looking to the future, Mrs. Cowan said the business does have room to expand, but it's hard to say what they will do when circumstances necessitates it.

At one time in the past, the restaurant was Butts Bakery.

First Reports At H.S.S.

One quarter of the school year has been completed and first term reports have been sent home to all parents.

If marks are low at this early date, parents could ask several questions of their children: Is homework being done faithfully? Has the student gone in for extra help? (Teachers are available almost every night from 3:15 until 3:50 or later.) Is the course too difficult for the child's ability?

Parents who may wish to talk to staff members about their child's progress are invited to call the school (768-3318) and make an appointment.

Parents and friends are invited to visit Hagersville Secondary School during school hours next week, sit in on classes or just browse around the library.

Tuesday evening the

Guiders Attend Training Session In Port Dover

Bright and early in the morning of Saturday, November 3rd, 11 guiders (the adult members of the Girl Guide Movement) from Hagersville District travelled to join other leaders from such widespread points as Niagara Falls, St. Catharines, Brantford, Woodstock and St. Thomas at Port Dover High School for Niagara Area Training Day.

This is an eagerly looked - forward to annual event, and this year Mrs. A. Crawley of Niagara Falls, who is Training Co-ordinator for Niagara Area, reported that this year nearly 500 guiders participated in the wide selection of sessions.

Mrs. Crawley arranged for trainers from Niagara Area, Toronto, Hamilton and St. Mary's to offer new ideas and ways of presenting the challenge of guiding to today's girl. Subjects included in the eight sessions for leaders of Brownies (7-10 age group) were outdoor fun, crafts for all seasons, and something on Brownies around the world. Leaders of Guides (10-14) could choose from seven sessions, including music in the company, a discussion on the danger of drugs, crafts for teens, to mention just a few.

The Ranger Guider, who works with the 14-16 group, attended morning and afternoon sessions, and Commissioners and Committee members could join a "Buzz Session" with an opportunity to ask questions pertaining to their jobs. A workshop presented by the Provincial Public Relations Committee was fairly popular.

Warren Division hosted the Training Day this year, with Mrs. A. Sabiston, Division Commissioner, and Mrs. J. Proctor, Division Training Chairman and her committee in charge of local arrangements.

Student Council members will act as hosts and hostesses during the week. Everyone is welcome.

your Unicef greeting is a child's future

The two leaders from Jarvis who attended the training day were Mrs. D. Perry and Miss Adrienne Perry. Mrs. C. Williams of Selkirk also attended. The leaders from Hagersville who were present included Miss Marilyn Burke, Mrs. Bergman, Mrs. D. Duxbury, Mrs. F. Lambert, Miss Pat Petracca, Mrs. B. Trebilcock and Mrs. D. Vanni.
