

Lambs Corners W.I. Plan Christmas Meeting

Mrs. Howard Nicklin first vice-president of Lambs Corners W. I. chaired the November meeting at the home of Mrs. Wray Dennis. Fourteen members of the Lambs Corners Glamourettes 4-H Club and their mothers were guests of the Branch. The minutes and correspondence were read by the secretary, Mrs. William Lamb and the Treasurer's report was given by Mrs. Isabel Milligan. Mrs. Osborne Lamb added a bit of humour to the Roll Call, "How I keep my family healthy" when she read a poem - "I Mean What I Say". An invitation from the Hagersville W. I. to attend their meeting on Tuesday, Nov. 26 at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Cecil Swing was accepted.

A money donation was sent to the T.B. and R.D. fund.

The Card Committee report was given by Mrs. Osborne Lamb.

A report of the "Creative Stitchery" course was given by Mrs. William Lamb.

Mrs. George Hedges, Public Relations Officer presented the 4-H Club members with spoons on behalf of the Branch.

Ruth Ann Murtland received her 4-H pin, having taken three units.

Mrs. Fess received her Leader's pin, having led three clubs.

Three club members presented their skit - "The right way and the wrong way to put on make-up." They were Sharon Field and Diane Hoskins. Mary Lou Nixon was the Commentator.

The leaders, Mrs.

Fess and Mrs. Weaver, received gifts from the club members.

Mrs. George Bassindale extended an invitation to have the Christmas meeting at her home on December 16th when there will be an exchange of Christmas gifts, and Christmas Baskets will be packed.

Mrs. Bassindale acted as programme convener in the absence of Mrs. Jack Atkinson. The Motto - "An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure" prepared by Mrs. E. Sider was read by Mrs. Wray Dennis.

The topic - "Proper Nutrition or Health Foods" was given by Mrs. Bertly Brown who also demonstrated "How to make a nutritious Salad." She had everyone guessing what was in it.

An alphabet quiz was conducted by Mrs. Hedges.

Oyster Supper A Success

The Silver Star Rebekah Lodge met in the Lodge Hall last week.

Roll Call found several offices absent because the Grand Masters Banquet was held on the same evening in Selkirk.

A report was given on the Oyster Supper which proved to be a very successful evening.

A good report was also given on the Livingston Banquet.

On Saturday, Dec.

7th the Lodge will be catering o the Canville Banquet.

A donation was sent to the Oddfellows Home in Barrie for the
