

Hagersville Highlights

Hagersville W.I. Members Discuss Good Nutrition

Mrs. Cecil Swing of King Street East, was hostess for the November meeting of Hagersville Women's Institute, on Tuesday evening, November 26th.

Special guests at the meeting were the ladies from Lamb's Corners Institute.

Mrs. William Mitchell extended a welcome and read a poem on friendship. The roll call, "How I Keep My Family Healthy," most interesting and humorous. A decision was made to have an exchange of gifts at the Christmas meeting, which will be held at Mrs. William Mitchell's home. Each member is asked to contribute their share to the program.

The program convenor, Mrs. Laura Swing, announced Mrs. Harold Stewart would present the topic "Proper Nutrition and Health Foods." This topic briefed us on our high Canadian standard of living, with all extras and delicacies available. The result is we eat more and move about the food, and maintain good health.

Mrs. Margaret Lougheed led in some contests related to health problems. Mrs. Hedges from Lamb's, extended thanks for the pleasant evening.

White Says -

"I Don't Drink Water"

H-N Regional Councillor Keith Shay told Provincial Treasurer John White Friday he has had a drink of water in Hagersville. And it's not very good.

Everybody wants water including Jarvis and Hagersville, he said. "Both want to expand but don't have water." "I don't know whether you've been there (Hagersville)...."

"I've been there, but I don't drink water," Mr. White replied.

He mentioned card parties would soon be starting and the Veterans World War I night was again a well-attended event.

Those members presently ill in hospitals are - J. Stinson; Percy McLellan; Caldwell Kett; Ray Fugard. Membership, as presented by C. Jackson showed 148 early Birds, and a total of 371 in memberships.

Fisherville Lions Host Ladies

The members of the Fisherville District Lions treated their wives to dinner and an evening of dancing at the Community Hall in Fisherville on Saturday, December 7th.

Arrangements for the function were made by our Vice-Presidents, Lions Gerald McKenzie, Raymond Rohrbach and Clay Spears. A large number were in attendance to enjoy the delicious turkey and ham dinner prepared by the ladies of Mt. Olivet U.C.W. During dinner, Lion Ernie Hoover led everyone in the singing of a number of well known songs including a few Christmas selections. The musical accompaniment was provided by Lions Fred Snider, Bill Clarke and Earl Kiefer.

Lion Chief Don Willis expressed his appreciation to the ladies for their continuing support and Lion Gerry McKenzie proposed a toast on behalf of all the members present. Mrs. Laurine Clarke made the response on behalf of the ladies.
