

Triple F Celebrates 5th Anniversary

A good attendance was presented for the February meeting which was the 5th Anniversary Party of the Hagersville Triple F Club.

The meeting was held in the Parlor of the Church on Saturday evening, February 16, beginning at 8 p.m., with President Margaret Lougheed welcoming each in her usual happy manner.

Secretary Ted Heinrichs read the minutes, followed by the Treasurer's report which was presented by Howard Hewitt.

A. Esselment gave some facts regarding the forthcoming tour of the Ontario Hydro Plant at Nanticoke and it was decided to go via bus. Date of this trip is the regular Triple F meeting night March 16, leaving the Church at 7:30 p.m., with the Eustaces and Esselments making the arrangements.

Mrs. Gladys Hewitt

told of the arrangements for the annual Pancake supper and detailed information sheets regarding duties, etc. were handed to each. Mrs. Margaret VanLoon showed the quilt blocks she had articulately made for the Colonial Lady Quilt; this to be sold at the 2nd Annual Arts and Crafts show on April 26 in the C.E. Wing.

General convener, Mrs. Marie Hewitt, who did such a fantastic amount of arranging as well as hard work last year, stated several different crafts will be included that were not in the show of 73. They will be candle making, copper enameling and decoupage, with several others expected as well. She showed the card table cover she had already made with other members urged to do so. These are to be used on the tables in the Tea Room and then sold.

The meeting was turned over to the Gedyes' and the McConachie's, with Bob Gedye reading the Scripture, taken from Psalm 127. Jane McConachie read the legend of the First Valentine's Day. Earl McConachie mentioned since this month was the 5th birthday of Triple F, it would be pleasant to refresh memories, and reflect on past successful years of Triple F.

The first meeting was held on February 15, 1969 with 34 interested people present and in March 1969 the name "Triple F" was selected for the group.

He said during the first fifteen months as 5th birthday cake greeted the group.

Court Whist was enjoyed with the winners being: High Lady (122) - Muriel Miller; High Man (126) - Russel Miller. Happy Birthday wishes were sung to members, Mrs. Hilda Atkinson and Russel Miller followed by birthday cake, tea and coffee served by the committee.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Mitchell of Talbot Street Jarvis will celebrate their golden anniversary with Open House on Saturday March 2 from 1 - 4 p.m. at their home. The family will have dinner in the evening at the Cove Room, Port Dover. No gifts please.

Hagersville UCW Meets

Recently installed president of the Evening Unit of the Hagersville, U. C. W., Mrs. Rhoda Ann Malcolm, presided at the meeting held in the Ladies' Parlor.

The meeting was held on Tuesday evening, February 5, and opened with Mrs. Malcolm reading "The U. C. W. Purpose" and a poem entitled "A Kitchen Prayer". Minutes were read and Roll Call responded to by 21 mem-

Announcement was given regarding the Presbytery held in Delhi Monday, February 18, also the World Day of Prayer to be held in our United Church at 2 p.m. on March 1.

An up-to-date report on the "Time-Out Program" was capably given by Mrs. Julie Rule, who stated a new series of programs and events were proving most successful. A donation of $50.00 from the "Time - Out" Executive was given the church in appreciation for the use of the church facilities.

Mrs. H. Stewart presided over the worship portion, with Scripture being taken from St. Matthew 25 telling of the story of talents. Hymn, "Take My Life And Let It Be" was sung, followed with the offering being received and dedicated with prayer.

"Christian Stewardship" was the theme of the program, with Mrs. Charles Smith reading an article "What is Stewardship?". Those taking part in a panel were Mrs. L. Lofthouse, Mrs. B. Monroe, Mrs. J. VanLoon, and Mrs. R. Harrop. They discussed and prayed for the basis of Stewardship and found three areas of giving - Time, Talents and Material Possessions. The meeting closed with the benediction and lunch was served by the committee in charge.

Jarvis Lions News

The Jarvis Lions Club held their regular meeting on Feb. 11th in the Community Hall.

Guests at dinner included the Lion's wives who help with the Minstrel Show along with Glen Silverthorne, the drummer; and John Linklater who will be providing musical accompaniment on his electric guitar.

A letter of resignation was received from Bruce Meehan who has been a club member for 14 years. He stated that he had enjoyed his membership but would be finding it difficult to attend meetings regularly.

It was decided that the club will build a float to be used in the Convent-ion Parade in Sudbury and in the parades held locally during the summer.

The meeting was to feature all members wearing bow - ties. Past President Bob Lysch lost his long tie to the scissors of Tail Twister Tom Saunders who was willingly assisted by Lion Jack Phibbs.

Lion Coyne Leatherdale was the winner of the lucky draw. The prize being a bow - tie.
