Springvale Unit: Mrs. Vera Slack - next meeting January 21st. The unit made New Year's favours.

Cayuga Unit: Mrs. Dorothy Mehlenbacher - making plans for Lucky Luncheon or Fashion Show.

Fishersville Unit: Mrs. Barb Held - next meeting Feb. 11th. Lucky Luncheon. The unit has a quilt for the executive to buy for draw.

Auxiliaries in the Coffee Shop would appreciate it if students from school, when they are in the coffee shop, would be a little more considerate and patient. W. H. G. H. Annual meeting will be April 3rd.

Annual Reports are to be ready for Feb. 6th. Memorium Cards for the W.H.G.H. Auxiliary will be available at Caledonia, Cayuga, Hagersville and Fishersville Funeral Homes.

The Auxiliary's project is to buy an X - ray table or processor. Mrs. Helen Snowden adjourned the meeting till Feb. 6th at 1:30 p.m.

Yearly reports from the various departments indicated a busy and encouraging year. The report of the nominating committee was read.

The program, under the direction of Mrs. Phillips, had a theme, "The Forward Look" and Mrs. I. Parkinson, Mrs. R. Smith and Mrs. G. Cherry took part in the worship service. An important day - long meeting of the Canadian Bible Society was announced for Jan. 24 in Jarvis, when Dr. K. Macmillan, General Secretary, will address the gathering in the evening.

A pleasant social hour followed the program, and Mrs. B. Meehan thanked the hostess and convenors.

to grow in properly and break through at a 45-degree angle, pointing directly at the second molars. Unless counteracted, the eruptive force of the wisdom teeth can damage or twist their neighbours out of position.

Other times, partial eruption causes pain and swelling of surrounding gums, which is generally treated before extraction. Your dentist may refer you to an oral surgeon if the condition is bad. Extraction can cost from $25 to $100 depending on how far the tooth is impacted into supporting bone.

Rarely, complications mean hospitalization. With today's equipment, a dentist can usually remove a wisdom tooth in less than 30 minutes - barring complications. You may go through a day of pain after extraction and a week or two of mild discomfort.

There are some advantages to the switch - at least for the smokers. According to the 1973 "Health Consequences of Smoking," a government publication formerly called the Surgeon General's Report, pipe and cigar smokers live longer than cigarette smokers. But not as long as nonsmokers.

The typical cigar smoker, says the report, smokes fewer than five cigars a day, while the average pipe smoker fills his pipe about 20 times daily. But neither cigar nor pipe smokers inhale. As a result, their rates of emphysema, chronic bronchitis, coronary heart disease and lung cancer are not as high as cigarette smokers. However, their death rates from cancer of the mouth, throat and stomach are about the same as those for cigarette smokers.

New evidence also shows that malignant skin tumors in animals appear more rapidly and in larger numbers when the skin is painted with Garnet U.C.W.

On Jan. 3 at 1:30 p.m. the members of the Garnet U.C.W. met at the home of Mrs. Walter North for their regular meeting. The reading of a New Year's verse and singing of the hymn "Standing At The Portal" opened the meeting, with 17 members present.

Fees for the school are $20 per four weeks for participating mothers and $32 per four weeks for non-participating mothers. Tots only attend one session a day, which could be either 9 - 11:30 or 1 - 3:30.

The library's share of the grant is to help set up the basic systems and services that would be normal in a library, Mr. Whitman said.

Things the librarian recommended doing, but doesn't have time for.

Paul Sharrett, who has a Bachelor of Library Science degree, has been hired to set up a card catalogue, classify books, organize a newly acquired record collection and set up a stack system. In conjunction with the director of Regional Library Services for Niagara, he will also prepare a long range plan for improving the library's fiction section and then do anything else the librarian, Dorothy Roulston, feels should be done, Mr. Whitman said.
