Jarvis Hall To Get Repairs

The Community Services committee of the City of Nanticoke met with five members of Jarvis Lions Club recently to discuss the future of the Jarvis Community Centre.

The building was originally built in 1954, renovated and maintained over many years by Jarvis Lions Club. It was sold to the Jarvis Village council some time ago for One Dollar. When regional government was established in this area on April 1st of this year the building therefore became the property of the City of Nanticoke (as did all municipally-owned buildings).

The Jarvis village club was anxious to learn how the hall could be continued to serve its role in the community.

opened with a sing song using a record player and tape recorder.

This was followed by a "Tournament" with four teams competing and proved quite hilarious when the contestants showed their skills in such events as - Tug - o - War, Endurance Race, Aquatic Race, 10 - Yard Dash, Automobile Race, etc. The result was a tie.

Mrs. Nicklin and Sonny presented a skit, "Red Riding Hood and the Modern Big Bad Wolf".

Mrs. Nicklin presented a rose to anyone having a birthday in June. This little act of thoughtfulness was much appreciated. A social hour was enjoyed by all when cake and ice cream was served.

The Jarvis village club was anxious to learn how the hall could be continued to serve its role in the community.

In making his committee's recommendation to council on Tuesday of last week, Councillor Phil Hare said Nanticoke council should put something in its budget for ward I (Jarvis - Walpole) for interior work on the building.

Councillor Hare said the members of the club were concerned but since coming to council felt their problems and worries had been resolved.

Nanticoke Lottery Suggestion

City of Nanticoke councillors recently passed a resolution requesting the province to institute a provincial lottery, the proceeds of which would provide a fund to lessen the unexpected financial burden thrust upon those municipalities visited by natural disasters.

The motion came to H - N Regional Council Thursday with the Finance and Administration Report, recommending it be filed.

No Nanticoke representatives questioned or commented on the move. The report was accepted by council and Nanticoke's suggestion filed.

$9,000 For Welfare

The H - N Region paid out $9,238.51 in Welfare costs for the month of June.

According to Wayne Elliott, Welfare Administrator, there were 163 active General Welfare Assistance cases on record. Thirteen on General Welfare were employable.

OMB Hearings

Ontario Municipal Board hearings for the City of Nanticoke will be held in Simcoe while those for the Town of Haldimand will be in Cayuga.

Budgeting For Services

The H - N Solid Waste Disposal Budget of $503,831, has been approved in principle for submission to the Finance and Administration Committee. Also, a Water, Sewer and Solid Waste Overhead Budget of $76,121.

Cayuga Water

H - N Regional Council agreed a study should be made by the Ministry of Environment on enlarging the water storage facility in Cayuga.

Stelco Road

The H - N Regional Road Department is acting as a contractor to construct the section of Road No. 43 which has not been completed on the Stelco property.

The Region will purchase the right of way and road from Stelco for 30 per cent of the cost of construction.

Planner

Stanley L. Couse of Kitchener has been hired by the Region as Senior Planner of the Development Control Section at an annual salary of $18,000.

Haldimand Tapes

U.S. President Richard Nixon might feel a great deal more comfortable now if he were living in the Town of Haldimand.

Councillors chuckled and made references Tuesday night to the Watergate Affair when they passed by law 31.....allowing for the destruction of records and tapes after a certain retention period.

Water Eh!

The Record was given a "Water" demonstration in a Hagersville home last Wednesday afternoon. The flush of the toilet produced a gush of black liquid to dirty the sides of the bowl and rest in the bottom.

It didn't look like my idea of water and since I didn't drink it, I can't swear it was water. But, I was assured - that's what it is all right. Brown fluid, somewhat resembling the results of water after I've washed my dirty sneakers, flowed out the kitchen tap.

I can't blame anyone from hesitating to drink, wash or cook with water the likes of that. And I'm sure, if Hagersville residents invited regional and provincial water, environment or natural resources officials over for a drink on days when the water is a little off-colour, they might see their new waterline put in a lot faster.

Letter To The Editor

The Editor:

I enjoyed reading your leader "A Noble Act" (Wise, Unwise and Otherwise) May 9, 1974 wherein you have extolled the leaders of Bangladesh and Pakistan for their efforts to normalize ties between the two countries. There is one point however that I should clarify lest it be misconstrued by your readers. You have alluded the Bangladesh as having been "under India's protection".

During the months of our greatest travail India proffered succour and sustenance to countless refugees who swarmed across our borders to the neighbouring state of India. In December 1971, at the express invitation of the elected Government of Bangladesh Indian troops joined the Bangladesh forces in the fight against the occupation Army. The resultant conflict culminated in the liberation of all Bangladesh territories. Indian troops were speedily withdrawn once the Bangladesh Government were able to put our administrative machinery into full gear.

Sewage Report

Proctor and Redfern, a Consulting Engineer's firm from Toronto, is doing a study of Hagersville's water and sewage situation. Over 1,000 village residents signed a petition in June requesting expanded facilities and a waterline from Lake Erie.

BIRTHS

LARAWAY - To Mr. and Mrs. George Laraway of Vanessa, a baby girl, 7 lbs. 15 oz. on July 7. A sister for David, Danny and Joe.
HOUSE - To Wray and Beth House of R.R. 3, Jarvis, a baby girl, Tammy Rae, 7 lbs. on July 7.

MANIELLY - Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Manielly are proud to announce the birth of their son, Jason Victor, 7 lbs. 9 ozs. on July 12. A brother for Cheryl Lynn.

BOMBERRY - To Robin and Mary Ann of R.R. 1, Ohswegen, a boy, Robin William Maynard 6 lbs. 8 oz. First grandchild for Mr. and Mrs. White and Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Bomberry.

Bangladesh's relation with India has remained cordial and good neighbourly based upon sovereign equality and mutual benefit. I have sought to emphasize this point since the use of the term "protection" could have unsavoury connotations for friends of Bangladesh and India in this country.

Yours sincerely,
Jamil Majid,
Second Secretary
Office of the High Commissioner for the People's Republic of Bangladesh.

CHILDREN ON SUMMER HOLIDAYS:
Summer's here and school children will be holidaying for the next two months. The Ministry of Transportation and Communications reminds all drivers to watch out for children... especially when driving in residential areas. Always be on the alert for the child who might appear in front of you. Remember, in the excitement of holidays and warm weather, children aren't carefree... they're carefree.

THE CHURCH YEAR

What is called "The Church Year" is observed in different ways, but it is observed in whole or in part by millions of Christians all over the world. Some observe it quite fully, others only in part and there are those who observe only Christmas and Easter. It is rather complicated so I thought I might give a short resume that might interest some, whether their Church uses it much or little. The year begins with Advent Sunday, which is always the nearest Sunday to the feast of St. Andrew, which is on the 30th of November. The year consists of two parts. The first, which begins as I have stated, is an annual commemoration of the chief events of our Lord's earthly life. The second, which begins on Trinity Sunday, is of a more general nature and deals with the response of man to this revelation of God. The Sundays after Trinity are intended to remind us very especially of the "daily round, the common task".

The first part, dealing with the ministry of our Lord, is very important. It helps to keep us true to the Life and teaching of our Lord Jesus Christ. Beginning with the four preparatory Sundays in Advent, it brings us to the great Festival of Christmas when we celebrate the Incarnation when God became flesh and dwelt among us. After Christmas comes the Epiphany season when parts of His earthly life are brought before us and we look to the future and His coming again. Then follow the three Sundays with the unpronounceable names (I hope they will be changed at the next revision).

These foreshadow the penitential message of the six Sundays in Lent and this thought of what He did for us stirs us to think more seriously of our lives as Christians. Then comes the greatest day of all - Easter - when we celebrate His final eternal victory over sin and death and Ascension Day when we celebrate His return to Heaven.

In the Provincial budget of April 9, the Honourable John White introduced a speculative land tax and a special land transfer tax of 20% to non-residents. However, as it was amended as written into legislation the situation changes somewhat.

Most farmers will likely be exempt from the tax but they must maintain adequate records to prove exemption.

The following is taken from correspondence received from Mr. White by O.F.A. "All persons dealing with land including farm land are allowed to adjust their cost value by the amount of their costs up to 10% of the value of the property on April 9 or acquisition. Cost where it is bought after April 9 for each full year after April that the land is held prior to disposition. Three special provisions for farmers - where the farm is transferred within the family for agricultural use, it is exempt. Where it is sold outside the family, the

The federal government have not yet said that they will allow this tax as a deduction for income tax purposes. Therefore anyone contemplating a sale would be well advised to consult a lawyer to determine their particular situation.

Public Relations officer for the steel company, Bob Ballantine, told The Record the foundation probably won't be laid until September or October. By the end of the year, the number of workers will be built up to 500.

Mr. Ballantine said the company also feels justified in increasing its steel prices to cover the cost of production. Since January, he said, Stelco's costs have increased by 175 million.
