

Jarvis Men Attend Fire School

Six firefighters from the Jarvis Fire Department attended a Fire School held in Port Rowan this past weekend. This is an annual school sponsored by the former Norfolk Mutual Aid Association. The instructors were professional firefighters from the City of Niagara Falls. Approximately 100 firefighters from 18 Fire Departments were in attendance. Classroom instruction on Hydraulics, Pumper Operation, Breathing Apparatus and Rescue were given in the morning and practical applications were demonstrated in the afternoon. Nelson Otterman of the Haldimand-Norfolk E.M.O. supplied radio communications for the various practice areas to keep the men in touch with their home departments in case of an emergency situation. Those in attendance from Jarvis included Murray Fleming, Mac Dosser, Ron Dennis, Peter DeBoer, Vaughn Mitchell and Jim Miller.
