Clerks following Charles Bourne were Andrew Rodgers (Feb. 1914) Ivan Holmes (June 1924) Sy Holmes (Oct. 1924) Howard Krouse (Jan. 1959) Robert Lysch (December, 1967 until March 1974).

Thirty - four present and former councillors and six present and former reeves are alive and many are expected to be at Wednesday's special celebration.

The government has finally become concerned about the exodus of producers from the industry and has taken strides in an effort to reverse this procedure.

However, as is the usual practice with the powers that be, action is taken too late. A perfect example is the delay by the Federal government in announcing its dairy policy not before the eve of a new dairy year.

Mr. Tipler felt the twenty miles from there to Nanticoke would be a reasonable commuting distance, pointing out they have workers in Hamilton driving that far. And, he said, Caledonia to Nanticoke is an easier twenty miles because "it's a straight highway proposition".

There will be building in the existing centres which have the facilities to grow, he added.

ST. JOHN AMBULANCE

There are nearly 4,000 members of the St. John Ambulance Brigade in Ontario who are ready to answer the call for help 24 hours a day. These uniformed volunteers provide First Aid services at sporting events, exhibitions, picnics, parades, walkathons, rock festivals and numerous other public activities. In addition, the Brigade operates 70 mobile First Aid Units.

Industrial milk in Ontario is in short supply.

With this in mind, the Milk Commission of Ontario is holding producer regional meetings across the province. The question is simple. Why are you not producing more industrial milk? The answer is also simple, inadequate returns.

Haldimand YPC's Elect Officers At 1st Meeting

On Saturday, March 9th, 8 p.m. the new Haldimand Young Progressive Conservative Association held its first meeting at the Cayuga Hotel, Cayuga. Guests in attendance were David Lowe, President of the Ontario Y.P.C.'s and his wife Janice, Antonio Guisani, Chairman of the Ontario Y.P.C.'s Research group, Miss Fran Ryan, Secretary of the Ontario Y.P.C. Association and Mr.

Lyle Furry, President of the Haldimand Progressive Conservative Association. Mr. Furry gave a short address and then introduced Mr. David Lowe who chaired the meeting. Mr. Lowe explained to the enthusiastic group in attendance the purpose and duties of an association such as ours. A short discussion was held on our specific purpose and the association's future plans.

Mr. Lowe then presented a taped interview on Energy with the Honourable Darcy McKeough, Minister of Energy and Resources.

The Haldimand Y.P.C. executive was then elected as follows: President - Mark McCombs, Dunnville; Vice-President - Gary Fess, Fisherville; other members of the executive - Douglas Lishman, Cayuga; John Peart, Caledonia; Rod Richer, Dunnville; Allan Taylor, Dunnville; and Secretary - Dan Bassindale, Selkirk.

Following the election of officers a hearty lunch was served.

C.W.L. Meets

The March C. W. L. meeting, held in St. Mary's Hall, was opened by the recitation of the League prayer.

Many items of business were settled, with a report on the Heart Campaign to date.

A donation was given towards the Parish school for First Communion Books. Also a donation was given towards the Retarded School summer camp. The C.W.L. voted a cash donation towards the new vestments for St. Mary's Church, Hagersville, and St. Ann's Church, Walpole.

Plans were made for the St. Patrick's card party to be held on Saturday, March 16th at 8:30 p.m. in St. Mary's Hall.

The Nomination Committee was announced for the new slate of officers to be presented at the April meeting. Our Parish Council received worthy mention at the St. Catharines Diocesan Convention will be held late in May at Niagara Falls.

Father Raymakers, Spiritual Director addressed the meeting. The guest speaker for the evening was Mrs. Pat Mackereith, who gave a very informative talk on the Regional Government.
