

Mrs. James Brown Entertains Jarvis W.I.

Mrs. James Brown entertained the Jarvis Women's Institute last Wednesday afternoon, with Mrs. Robert Smuck in the chair.

Mrs. Carl Jaques called the Roll - "My Favorite Irish Song", read the minutes and gave the financial report.

Mrs. Mary Keen was announced as a patient in West Haldimand Hospital.

It was decided to accept the offer to cater for Holmes W.I. 45th Anniversary at $2.75 a plate on April 29.

The W. I. will also cater to about 150 persons in the Community Hall at $2.75 per plate on April 17 for the TB & Respiratory Disease Assoc.

Mrs. Marie Brintnell, who has moved to Baden, sent a note of thanks for a gift from the Institute on her departure.

The meeting of executives to plan the District Annual will be held at the home of Mrs. Reuben Shoup, Hagersville on March 25 at 2:30 p.m.

A letter from those in charge of a summer camp for the mentally retarded, south of Cambridge, was read. A donation will be sent.

The Senior Training Course, 1st and 2nd choices, were Fabrics and Crewel craft Creative stitchery.

The Daffodil Luncheon at Kohler was announced for April 10. Dr. Margaret McCready will be the speaker. Those interested should notify Mrs. Robert Doughty of Nanticoke by March 27.

Friday, April 6, will be the Cancer Society tea and bake sale.

The April meeting will be at Mrs. Fred Roulston's home on April 3.

Mrs. Harry Belbeck Program Convener, read a short poem as did Mrs. Harry Preston.

The hostess, Mrs. Brown, showed pictures she had brought back from her holiday trip with Mr. Brown and Mr. and Mrs. Russell Miller of Hagersville last July.

Leaving Toronto and flying to Edmonton, they then went by bus and train to the Land of the Midnight Sun, stopping at Dawson City, Yukon, and going on to Fairbanks, Alaska. They then came by ship down the coast of British Columbia to Vancouver. The pictures were very lovely and Mrs. Brown brought them to life by her talk.

The lunch committee of Mrs. Carl Jaques and Mrs. Nellie Stallwood, treated all to angel cake.

Mrs. R. A. Miller voiced the pleasure of all present at seeing the pictures, partaking of the food and enjoying the rest of the program as well as the hospitality of the home.

Wait. Before you put up your umbrella, look around you. Don't poke someone in the eye. Far too many people are careless with their umbrellas, says The Canadian National Institute for the Blind, mainly because they don't realize they could ruin a person's eyesight. Whether your umbrella is over your head of folded under your arm, watch where you are going, specially in crowds.

The introduction for this film stated that these happenings are an authentic portrayal of a changing church in all communities.

"Inner City" vividly portrayed problems of all ages in the slum areas; the neglected elderly persons and the indifferent apartment dwellers. The film best wishes go with "Glad" for an enjoyable satisfying retirement.

Mrs. Gladys Daglish, Registered Nurse, of R. R. #3, Hagersville, was appointed Head Nurse of the Medical-Surgical Floor at West Haldimand General Hospital, Hagersville in February 1964 - two weeks before the hospital opened.

During the ten year period she has made a tremendous contribution to the Nursing department as Head Nurse, Supervisor and since 1970 as Assistant Director.

In her quietly capable and conscientious way, she worked hard to maintain and upgrade nursing standards and earned the respect of the entire hospital staff.

Mrs. Florence Miller, Registered Nurse, of R. R. #3, Jarvis, also began her nursing career at West Haldimand General Hospital in February 1964. Following other supervisory positions, her talent for methodical organization resulted in her appointment as Head Nurse, Central Supply Service.

After an illness, which hospitalized her from August 1973 to January 1974, "Flo" is now enjoying her new home in Jarvis.

Her nine and one half year contribution to the effectiveness of the nursing department will long be remembered by everyone connected with the hospital.

Jarvis U.C.W.

The Committee in charge of the March meeting of Wesley U.C.W. was Mrs. Robert Smuck, Mrs. Harry Belbeck and Mrs. Tom Oldham.

The Scripture passage, Romans chapter 4, verses 4 - 8 was read from the New English version. The theme of the Meditation was centred on the thought "Let us pattern our lives after the ideals of Christ".

Mrs. Don Duxbury presided over the business meeting. A parcel of stamps has been sent to the Leprosy Mission and everyone is urged to keep on collecting them and to place them in the box in the vestibule of the church or the one in the C.E. Wing entrance.

Volunteers from Garnet and Wesley U.C.W. will serve to the Elders and Communicants Class for the Charge.

Mr. Reeves ran the movie projector for the thought provoking film entitled "Inner City".

Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Mays

MAYS - WILLIAMSON
McMaster Divinity College Chapel, Hamilton, was the setting for the marriage of Elisabeth Ann Williamson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William W. Williamson, Jarvis, and Gerald Herbert Mays, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Mays, Newmarket, at two o'clock on January 19, 1974.

Floral arrangements of yellow carnations, white chrysanthemums and yellow gladioli decorated the chapel.

The bride entered the chapel on the arm of her father, wearing a long empire waisted gown of white lagoda trimmed with Guipure lace. The gown was fashioned with long slim sleeves, a high neckline and a skirt which fell into a brush train showing inserts of accordin pleats at the sides. Her Camelot Cap head dress, trimmed to match her gown, held a three tier scalloped elbow length veil. She carried a cascade bouquet of white carnations and red roses.

Miss Lynn Williamson, sister of the bride, was maid of honour and the bridesmaids were Mrs. John Quinlan, Brantford and Mrs. Paul Simington, Hamilton.

The flower girl was Miss Jane Davis, Etobicoke, cousin of the bride.

The attendants wore floor length gowns designed with royal blue, velvet halter tops and full swing skirts of blue nylon floral sheer trimmed with matching ribbon at the waistline. Matching velvet capes lined with floral sheer completed a total look. They carried bouquets of yellow carnations complemented by blue velvet streamers.

John Quinlan, Brantford, was best man and the ushers were Harvey Hagarty, London, John Bailey, Thunder Bay and James Williamson, Jarvis, brother of the bride.

Following the wedding a reception was held at The McMaster Faculty Club. Receiving the guests with the bride and groom were their parents.

The mother of the bride chose a mint green peau de soie floor length gown styled with a fitted waist, scoop neckline, full bishop sleeves and trimmed with Guipure lace. She wore a corsage of miniature Orange Delight roses.

The groom's mother wore a floor length, silver knit gown with matching jacket and a pink orchid corsage.

Prior to a honeymoon trip to Freeport, Bahamas, the bride changed to a maroon and grey checked pant suit.

Parties and showers honoring the bride were given by Mrs. William L. Ineson, Jarvis, Mr. and Mrs. William Davis, Etobicoke and Mr. and Mrs. Wray O'Grady, Willowdale.

Nanticoke C.G.I.T. Hold Anniversary

This spring the Nanticoke C. G. I. T. are completing their twenty - fifth year as an active organization.

Always a community group, it has provided an interdenominational, church - oriented programme. The variety of activities ranged from preparing for and presenting twenty - five candlelight, Christmas Vesper Services; mission and Bible studies; jaunts to shopping malls, Ice Capades and Polles, to cathedrals and a synagogue and to many more points of interest.

Of course there have been parties and endeavors of all kinds, camping experiences and all the things that teenage girls like to do. The twenty - sixth

Mother and Daughter Banquet is scheduled for May.

There have never been fewer than twenty-two enrolled at any time, so that over the years a great many girls have participated. It is hoped that families will pass along the following information to every girl who was ever a part of Nanticoke C.G.I.T.

To observe this special year, there is to be a Reunion Tea in Christ Church Parish Hall on Easter Sunday beginning at two o'clock. What an opportunity to meet and chat with girlhood friends and reminisce about the "good old days".

and adopted during the business session it was decided to raise our prices for catering to banquets and wedding receptions. Mrs. L. Rutherford moved a vote of thanks to our hostess and the meeting closed with the benediction.

This was our annual quilting bee when we do a quilt for the Riegel Home near Hamilton.

In the afternoon our meeting was opened by the president with a verse on the old-fashioned quilting bee, followed by the singing of "What A Friend We Have in Jesus" and The Lord's Prayer.

The Roll Call "A Thought for Today" was well responded to and the offering was taken. Mrs. Wilfred Roth was in charge of the devotions and program.

An article "Who was St. Patrick?" was read by Mrs. H. Lint. Then a little play was put on by five members about missions abroad and a very good discussion followed.
