

Stone Church Auxiliary meets

Tuesday Evening, Feb. 18, the Auxiliary met at the home of Mrs. Jean Campbell of Nelles Corners. The president opened the meeting with a reading of the minutes and correspondence was dealt with. A letter of thanks was read from the Opportunity Centre for their Christmas gifts of baking supplies.

It was decided to hold a Congregational Family night on March 24, during Spring Break. If your children have a favourite game please have them bring it. Clarence Mehlenbacher will be showing slides. A motion was passed that we give our minister a small sum to supplement him in his generous and kindly gifts of books to people in times of sickness and distress. We are looking forward to catering to two weddings, the 5th and 19th of July - committees to be appointed later.

The roll call was responded to and collection taken and dedicated. Our next meeting will be March 10, in the form of a pot luck dinner at the Church School. A small quilt will be quilted and some housecleaning done.

Mary Roth was in charge of the program for the evening and opened devotions with hymn 399. Dorothy Rutherford read the Scripture, John 16, verses 16 to 24, followed by a prayer given by M. Roth.

We are fortunate to have Jean Yule with us to show pictures on the trip she and her husband took to the World's Plowing Match in Finland last summer. Her commentary was enjoyed by all. Among her slides was a picture of a monument in Finland built in memory of Jean Sibelius. It is to his music we sing the hymn "Be still my soul", which we sang at close. After the Mizpah benediction, Rita Nopper and the hostess served a lovely lunch. Jean Mayke gave courtesy remarks.

Friends and neighbours

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hedges returned to their home in Prince George, B.C. Feb. 23, after spending 2 weeks with Mr. and Mrs. Joyce Hedges and a weekend with Mr. and Mrs. William Hedges, Schomberg, Ontario.

the British Empire, where there is a measure of peace and justice freedom for all, and where a higher standard of civilization was evolved and is still evolving than anywhere else.

But this is not only concerning our own land. Today we are faced with the greatest organized challenge to Christianity and to civilization the world has ever seen, and I count myself lucky and honoured to be of the right age and fully trained to throw my full weight into the scale. For this I have you to thank. Yet there is more work for you to do. The home front will still have to stand united for years after the war is won.

For all that can be said to the contrary, I still maintain that the war is a very good thing; every individual is having a chance to give and to dare all for his principle, like the martyrs of old. However long the time may be, one thing can never be altered - I shall have lived and died an Englishman. Nothing else matters one jot, nor can anything ever change it.

You must not grieve for me, for if you really believe in religion and all that it entails, that would be hypocrisy. I have no fear of death, only a queer elation - I would have it no other way.

The universe is so vast, so ageless that the life of one man can only be justified by the measure of his sacrifice. We are sent to this world to acquire the personality and character to take with us. Those who just eat, sleep, prosper and procreate, are no better than animals if all their lives they are at peace.

I firmly and absolutely believe that evil things are sent into the world to try us; they are sent deliberately by our Creator to test our mettle, because He knows what is good for us. The Bible is full of cases where the easy way out has been discarded for moral principles.

I count myself fortunate that I have seen the whole country and know men of every calling. But with the final test of war I consider my character fully developed. Thus at my early age, with my earthly mission ready fulfilled, I am prepared to die with just one regret, and only one - that I could not devote myself to making your declining years more happy by being with you; but you will live in peace and freedom; and I shall have directly contributed to that, so here again my life will not have been in vain. Your loving son...

Mrs. Linda Weir and Beryl Smith, Springvale, displayed some of their fancy stitchery at Kohler.

Wesley U.C.W.

On Feb. 18 Wesley U.C.W. held its regular meeting in the church parlour with President Suzanne Fallis presiding. Thirty women attended.

One of the most important items of business dealt with was the decision to hold an Auction Sale in May or June. This is to be a special fund - raising project for the Building Fund and the whole congregation is going to be asked to contribute articles for this sale.

Guest speaker for the evening was Mrs. Doreen Good of Springvale. Mrs. Good related the fascinating story of how she and her husband have successfully adopted two little abandoned children from Bangladesh, in spite of numerous problems, red tape, and delays.

The committee in charge of the meeting consisted of Doreen Doughty, Margaret Jaques, Rena Smith and Flora Jaques.

Celebrates 80th birthday

A buffet dinner for friends and relatives of Mrs. Annie Forbes was held in the Parish Hall, Saturday, Feb. 15.

Guests came from Port Colborne, Hamilton, Kingston, Mississauga, Kitchener, Port Dover, Ingersoll, Woodstock and Nanticoke to help Mrs. Forbes celebrate her 80th birthday.

Piper Jim Mutterer, a nephew, brought the happy day to a close with some of Mrs. Forbes' favourite tunes.
