

Lamb's Corners Women's Institute

The April meeting of the Lamb's Corners Women's Institute met at the home of Mrs. Jack Atkinson, on Monday evening April 21st. The President, Mrs. Clayton Weaver opened the meeting with the Opening Ode, the Mary Stewart Collect, and the Lord's Prayer repeated in unison.

Ten members answered the roll call "An interesting item from Home and Country." Correspondence was read by the secretary, Mrs. Wm. Lamb. The Hagersville Women's Institute invited our members to their meeting being held at 8 p.m. on May 20.

The 4-H Club have completed their project "Let's Make Bread" and achievement day is May 3 at Trinity Parish Hall in Fisherville. The 4-H girls invited our members to an entertaining evening in the Cheapside Hall on May 7 at 8 p.m. Our institute is presenting each girl that completed the project with a silver spoon.

The district annual is being held at the Parish Hall in Nanticoke on May 29 with 'Lamb's Corners' being the host institute. A donation was made to the Cancer fund. Our institute is to cater at a wedding in June, the committee to plan for the dinner is Mrs. George Bassindale, Mrs. Wray Dennis, Mrs. Clayton Weaver and Mrs. Jack Atkinson.

The next meeting is to be held at the home of Mrs. Hubert Field on Monday evening May 12 at 8 p.m. The lunch committee to be Mrs. Clayton Weaver and Mrs. Lloyd Aikens.

The standing committee convenors read their yearly reports and handed them in to the secretary, Mrs. George Bassindale was program convenor. Mrs. Wray Dennis gave the topic "modern trends in Color Schemes and New Ideas for Home Decorating." This was a very interesting topic as she had just visited the Home Show in Toronto.

Some of the members brought articles of their handwork, making a fine display. Three of our members had perfect attendance for the year. Mrs. Osborne Lamb, Mrs. Clayton Weaver and Mrs. Isabelle Milligan. The president turned the meeting over to Mrs. George Bassindale who presided for the election of officers.

Mrs. Clayton Weaver again

presided and read a suitable poem. A gift was presented to Mrs. Bentley Brown and Mrs. Wm. Lamb, in appreciation of their leadership in the course on "Creative Stitchery." Eleven members paid their fees. China plates, with a map of Haldimand County were on display. Many members bought them for keepsakes. Mrs. Clayton Weaver thanked the hostess, the lunch committee and all who had taken part in the program. The meeting closed with the members repeating the Women's Institute Grace and singing God Save the Queen. A delicious lunch was served by Mrs. Freeman Steele and Mrs. Howard Nicklin assisted by the hostess.

Garnet U.C.W.

The members of Garnet U.C.W. met for their April meeting at the home of Mrs. Gordon Roulston on April 7, at 8:15 p.m. with 19 ladies present.

Mrs. Emerson Phillips, president, presided over the business session with plans announced for the Fashion Show at N. Walpole School, and arrangements for the annual spring cleaning of the Church. Financial reports indicated a successful Easter supper.

Mrs. Lloyd Bilton introduced the Easter theme with the Legend of the Dogwood, and scripture was read by Mrs. W. North, followed by a meditation by Mrs. Bilton and a poem by Mrs. Ross Smith.

The study for the evening was on "God's faithful tenants of the vineyards," and it was followed by a discussion on whether Garnet Church is producing the fruits God expects.

The program was concluded with a poem entitled "It's Spring" by Mrs. H. Wilson, and a quiz on the life of Jesus. Mrs. C. Harrop expressed thanks to the hostess and convenors, and the evening closed with a social half-hour.

Not All The Big Ones Get Away

Harold Taylor displays 12 pound rainbow trout caught while fishing with Dan Montour. The boys had left work and this was the biggest of the five fish they caught. While weighing 12 pounds the trout was measured at 32 inches. Besides fishing Harold is involved with the other sports in the area and is well known for his refereeing ability in the winter. He refereed better than 50 games this past winter. In the summer months Harold plays ball for the Hagersville Seniors and this summer will also coach the Pee-Wees in the S.C.B.A.
