

Cheapside News

Thanksgiving week end was the climax to a busy summer season at Wilson Macdonald Memorial School Museum. Guests from Ontario, New York, Lowbanks, Toronto, Stayner, Sacramento California and from Northern Quebec and Prince Edward Island, when two University Professors made a call, they extolled with delight and pleasure having had "a look into the past" of Ontario's One Room Red Brick School House. The climax to an exciting four months season "open house Sundays."

Although Sunday regular Open House, closed with Thanksgiving Holiday we are open year round by appointment. Individual guests, car loads, bus loads, friends visiting in the area from over-sea, or shorter distance anywhere in Ontario or Canada-U.S.A.. We are always ready to accommodate schools and guests from far and near.

Those who represented Haldimand County Museum Board Auxiliary at the Eva Brooks Donely Museum in Simcoe Saturday afternoon on the occasion of their seventy-fifth Anniversary, a gala event, were Mrs. Harris (Dorothy) Hutton of Caledonia, from Haldimand Historical Museum, Cayuga, and the Rev. Earl M. and Mrs. Sider from Cheapside's Wilson Macdonald Memorial School Museum. Congratulations to Bill Yeager curator and his capable staff, the Norfolk Historical Society and friends for the splendid reception, the friendly homey atmosphere, and their achievement to bring together her so many guests, curators and history minded personnel. I'm sure we all felt like coming back.

Rev. Harvey, Mrs. Sider and family of Stayner, Ontario, had Thanksgiving dinner on Monday with his parents, accompanying them a friend, Mrs. Janey Laing of Stayner who enjoyed her first trip to "City of Nanticoke."
Rev. Elwood and Mrs. Flewelling, former pastor of the BIC in Bridlewood Development, Agincourt, now living in the area with her sister, Mrs. E. Weaver called on "the Siders" Monday afternoon.

Ernie Lake Shore Ministerial resumed their monthly meeting, and met at the home of Pastor Cyril Gingrich in Selkirk on Thursday morning with six members present. Rev. Charles Byers of Cheapside BIC is chairman.
A miscellaneous shower was given on Friday night in the community hall in honor of the newly weds Darryl and Mrs. Fehrman, Simcoe.
The family of the late Oscar Hoover had dinner on Sunday in the community hall. Mr. and Mrs. Stanley McNery formerly of Rainham, now of Tennessee, U.S.A. being honored guests.

The Rev. Earl M. Sider officiated at the funeral of the late Eli Smelser of Rainham on Friday afternoon at the Hyde and Mott Funeral Parlor. The challenge of the short memorial message was "Foot Prints on the Sands of Time." For one having lived 93 years a lot of foot prints have been made. Sympathy to the family children, grandchildren and great grandchildren is extended.

A number from the Cheapside area attended the Anniversary service at Selkirk Baptist Church Sunday morning and evening. The guest speaker was a former student minister, Rev. George Lockhart, now of Barrie, Ont. Guests soloist Mr. Whitmore Griffin of St. Catharines, a part time Selkirk boy, whose mother was music teacher and supervisor in Rainham and South Wapole for some years. These services were refreshing and brought many memories of the days when the old Baptist church stood as a sentinel on the cross roads of Cheapside.

and firms to ensure that all accounts payable have been verified before payment is made.

Recently hospitals, colleges and other institutions have been the prime target for the false billings.

Typically an invoice is received requesting payment for an advertisement in a newspaper. The invoice may be on the letterhead of an advertising agency and may be accompanied by a tear sheet from the paper.

Often a disclaimer in a very fine print may appear on the back of the invoice stating: This is a solicitation and does not constitute a right to payment."

Recently a new variation was introduced in Ontario. Several hospitals placed legitimate help wanted advertisements in a Toronto newspaper. Some time later they received an invoice accompanied by a purported tear sheet from a foreign newspaper. This advertisement had never been requested and likely never appeared.

Sunshine club

by Ruth Hagan

The Jarvis Sunshine Club met in the IOOF Hall on Thursday, October 16th with 6 tables of Hoss in play. The winners for the ten games of Hoss were: ladies high, Elsie Phillips and ladies low went to Winnie Preston. Men's high went to Roy Mitchell and low went to Clarence Smith. The Travelling Hoss was won by Leah Duncan which was a box of Cow Brand Baking Soda.

The Club would like to thank the Jarvis Lions Club for donating the Community Hall on Wednesday, October 15th for the Annual Fall Rally. We also would like to thank Wm. J. Snowden who acted as Master of Ceremonies who did an excellent job as always. We would like to thank Rev. Arthur Tribe, Rector, Jarvis and Nanticoke Anglican Churches, also Rev. W.M. Reeves, Minister of Wesley United Church. Thanks to Mayor John Pow of City of Nanticoke. We would also like to thank Norma Williamson, Molly Marr, Doreen Dougthy and Margaret Miller who supplied the entertainment for the Jarvis Club. Well done ladies so thanks again to all these people. Our next meeting of the Sunshine Club will meet on Thursday October 23rd. at 1:30 p.m.

Women's League

A Mass preceded the October meeting of the Catholic Women's League meeting.

The League prayer was recited. Mrs. Eugene Montague, President, welcomed all members, and the "Roll Call" was taken by Mrs. Geo. Anderson.

The local Parish Council caters for the annual Knights of Columbus dinner to held in Jarvis Community Centre, on Sat., Nov. 1st.

An announcement was mentioned as to a "Day of Recollection" to be held at St. Thomas Aquinas, Church St. Catharines.

The local C.W.L. were indeed sorry to learn of one of our very worthy and active members leaving this Parish.

On the Farm Front

During the months of January through August this year Group I milk production is up six percent over the same period last year and Group II milk production is increased by five percent. The number of milk producers in both pools continues to drop. Butterfat levels were higher this year than last.
