Hallowe'en Dance Largely Attended

There was a large attendance for the annual Hallowe'en dance, held in the Hagersville Legion Auditorium on Sat. Oct. 25. The costume parade commenced at 10 p.m., and Judges Mary and Donald Myke had a difficult task in deciding the prize-winning costumes. Those finally chosen as the winners were: Most original lady - Isabelle Langley dressed as an octopus; Most original man - Dianne Smith, attired as a gentleman out walked his dog; Comic lady - Joyce Bray, costumed as an old, old, lady complete with wrinkles; Comic man - Lyn Smith, representing an ape; and Best dressed couple - Doreen and Sam Pepper, looking like a large pair of rag dolls. There were a great many in various costumes, each showing much originality and work. Music for the evening's dancing pleasure was supplied by the Tru-Tones orchestra.

Charities Campaign Under Way

Rev. Robert Hyde, who is the 1975 Chairman of the Hagersville and District Charities Campaign, has recently announced the campaign is proceeding at a good pace. Some of the local organizations taking part in the local canvass have already completed their territory while other groups are in the process of near-completion.

Remember when the canvasser calls at your door, to give generously, in order that all charities included in this one large effort, may each be supported from your one donation. There are NO paid employees, with NO salaries paid for any work which may be done towards the charities canvass, only minimal expenses are retained to cover postage, etc.

Friendship Club Meet

The Hagersville Friendship Club held their regular weekly meeting in the Legion Auditorium on Oct. 16 with nearly thirty members present for the afternoon. President, Mrs. Hilda Atkinson welcomed each one, and secretary, Mrs. Mae Kitchen read the previous minutes. Following the eight games of progressive hosa a lunch was served by the committee, in charge of the day.

Those who won the prizes for the afternoon were - Most hossa and travelling hossa won by Mrs. Isonson Gowan, and High Score winner being Mr. Mel Schildrick. Plan now to attend these weekly Thursdays together where fun and friendship are in abundance.

Triple F Guest

The committee in charge of the November Triple F meeting Rhoda Ann and Peter Malcolm, and Edna and Alton Esselment, have made arrangements to have Rev. Robert and Carol Hyde as guest speakers for the evening. This monthly meeting will be held in the Church parlour on Saturday evening, Nov. 15, at 8 p.m. with everyone invited to attend. Program will include a talk on the Hyde's work in Saskatchewan, slides as well as a question and answer period.

Lamb's Corners Women's Institute

The October meeting of Lamb's Corners Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. George Bassindale. This was a celebration of the twenty-first anniversary of Lamb's Corners Women's Institute. After the singing of the Women's Institute Grace, a delicious pot luck supper was enjoyed by seventeen members. A beautifully decorated anniversary cake was at the center of the table. After supper two of our senior members Mrs. E. Sider and Mrs. Osborne Lamb were honoured with a gift from the Institute.

The president, Mrs. Clayton Weaver opened the meeting. The Opening Ode, the Mary Stewart Collect and the Lord's Prayer were repeated in unison. Mrs. Geo. Bassindale read the minutes of the last meeting, which were approved. The treasurer's report was given by Mrs. Isabel Milligan.

The Institute is to buy an item for a family who have lost their home and belongings by fire Mrs. Osborne Lamb, card convener, reported sending several get well cards and a baby card. Mrs. Jack Wood reported for the sick committee.

Mrs. Clayton Weaver, who is one of our 4H leaders, reported on the progress of their project "Creative Stitchery," and reported they are planning a social evening for the Institute members in November. Plans for the

Selkirk Scene

We are happy to report that Pat Fehrmann is once again home from McMaster Medical Centre after major surgery. He seems to be recovering very well. Keep up the good work Pat. You certainly have a lot of spunk.

We are at the same time, very sorry to hear that something apparently went wrong and Brian Swarts had to return unexpectedly to Hamilton General Hospital.

The Grand River Roasters Chapter of the National Campers and Hikers met at the home of Gerald and Marion McKenzie with 18 members present.

Tom Scott has returned home from West Haldimand Hospital. Keep on with getting back on your feet again Tom.

Judy Lipscombe entertained several of her friends on Thursday evening with a "Geni" party. "Geniware" is put out by the Avon Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Slooteveg of Hamilton spent part of last week at their country home near Selkirk. A belated happy birthday Oct. 24th, to Leila Schweyer, and Arvil Nie. Hope they both celebrate many many more.

"quilting project" were completed. The next meeting is to be held on the 17th of November at the home of Mrs. Clayton Weaver. The lunch committee being Mrs. Bertly Brown and Mrs. Wm. Lamb.

A very enjoyable time was had by all as we revealed our mystery friend for the year, and opened the gift we had received from her. We drew names for our mystery friend for the next year. The roll call "your most embarrassing moment while travelling," proved to be very humorous.

Mrs. Jack Wood was program convener and she gave a very good motto "The Best Things in Life are Free - take time to observe them." She then called on Mrs. George Bassindale who showed pictures of the Southern States, which were taken on the trip Mr. and Mrs. Bassindale had taken in company with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Lamb. The pictures and comments on the trip were very enjoyable. Mrs. Clayton Weaver thanked Mrs. Bassindale for sharing their trip with us, and for having this anniversary meeting in her home.

The meeting was closed with the singing of "God Save the Queen." The anniversary cake was cut and served with ice cream, tea and punch. Each member received a beautiful red rose.
