United Way to meet in Jarvis

For the first time, the United Way Board and Campaign officials are meeting in Jarvis. The challenge to extend the fund raising activities to the Haldimand-Norfolk region has led to this stop which will see the former Jarvis Community Fund an integral part of the larger organization.

Last year, the Norfolk United Way succeeded in raising over $70,000, for ten essential services such as the Canadian National Institute for the Blind, the Victorian Order of Nurses, the Salvation Army and so on. This year, new services have been included such as the Big Brothers of Haldimand-Norfolk and the Lynnwood Family Centre. With over a dozen agencies the United Way of Norfolk and Area will be seeking to raise $105,323. for their support in 1976.

The President and Campaign Manager of the United Way, the Rev. Clifford Waite is not daunted by this challenge. "If we all do our FAIR SHARE", he said, "we shall have no trouble meeting this objective. "By doing our fair share" Mr. Waite was referring to the active co-operation in the campaign of the personnel of the agency-partners, as well as 'fair share' contributors from all sectors of the community Presbyterian Church on which has been established Wednesday, September 3rd, as 1/2 of 1 per cent of a at 7:30 p.m. will be an person's annual income. important first step toward The meeting in the Jarvis the realization of this goal.
