Community Centre on Wednesday afternoon with fifteen members present.

President, Mrs. Reta Bouck conducted the meeting which was opened by singing the Club Ode and repeating the Lord's Prayer. Secretary, Mrs. William Kenline gave the secretarial report and Mrs. Roy Lounsbury - the treasury report.

Two members donated to the birthday box for the month. One new member, Mrs. Pearl Deming was received.

Correspondence included thank you cards from those remembered while ill during the past months.

Mrs. Clarence Puddicombe was presented with a china cup and saucer on attaining her 25 years of membership in the Club, with Mrs. Lee Dedrick making the presentation.

It was decided to give a plate of goodies to shut-ins at Christmas time, with Mrs. Lawrence Dedrick and Mrs. Reta Bouck in charge of purchasing and delivery.

Also a gift is to be presented to the Club's adopted citizen at Norview. A feature of the afternoon was the drawing of the lucky ticket on the fancy Club Quilt, which was in charge of Mrs. Clarence Puddicombe. Mrs. Pearl Deming drew the winning ticket belonging to Mrs. Alice Holden.

A Christmas dinner was planned for the December meeting and an exchange of gifts valued $1.50 to $2 each. The ladies spent the afternoon in quilting. Mrs. Eva Trickett and Mrs. Reta Bouck assisted the hostess with the luncheon at $30 p.m.

Birthday Honored

Mrs. Eva Trickett was honoured on Sunday morning, Nov. 16, at Bethel Baptist Church, Simcoe, when she was escorted to the front of the church by Mrs. Linda Unger, when mention was made of her attaining her 80th birthday. She was presented with a lovely corsage of pink and white carnations on behalf of the church while the choir sang "Happy birthday." Mrs. Trickett thanked them for the remembrance.

In the afternoon she was entertained at her home by her daughters, Mrs. Wray Dedrick and Mrs. John Bouck and families, including Mrs. Julia Queensbury and Teressa, Langton; Mrs. Betty Wingrove, Chris and Penny of Aiymer; Mrs. Dorothy Mabec, Langton; Mr. and Mrs. Brad Squires; Mr. and Mrs. Jim Bouck; Terry, Larry and Garry Bouck, Mrs. Marjorie Neuman, Douglas Tom and Ross Bouck.

A delicious luncheon was served with a birthday cake made and decorated by her daughter, Norma Bouck. Mrs. Trickett received lovely gifts and expressed her thanks.

On Saturday Mrs. Ida Spratt, Port Rowan, visited Mrs. Trickett and presented her with flowers from Mrs. Helen Innis, Simcoe and herself in honor of her birthday. Also calling were Mr. and Mrs. Larry Carroll and David and Allen Carroll, who presented her with the recently published book of Port Rowan and Long Point "Scenes of Change and Charm."
