"The object of the program is to provide education and counselling," said Dr. H.H. Washburn who is Director and Medical Officer of Health for Haldimand-Norfolk.

"Presently there is a certain amount of counselling available in schools," he said, "but it is not as broad as we would like it to be."

"Much of the success of a school program depends on the relationship between the student and the nurse in charge."

"Also," said Dr. Washburn, "there are a lot of people over school age who should know more about family planning and birth control."

"The object of this exercise is to get the information out to a couple of centres to see what the response will be. The centres aren't just for the use of Simcoe and Langton alone but for the whole region."

"Maybe it will turn out that we haven't put the centres in the right place," he said.

"After we see what the response is then we will expand as the need seems necessary, possibly putting an information centre somewhere in Haldimand."

There is a family planning clinic in Simcoe where the methods of birth control are available but the new counselling centres are for the distribution of information only.

The program is sponsored by the Ontario Ministry of Health who, according to Dr. Washburn, want family planning information available to anyone who wants it, available to men and women of all age groups.

pletely misled the people of Ontario, refusing to be honest with the people they represent. This package was designed to govern up to one-half million people, and with only 8,500 in our region, I submit it is a luxury we cannot afford."

Mrs. Fuller called regional government "the most expensive experiment in Ontario's history."

"We protested that there needed to be more studies of the regions already formed. That it would be too big, too fast, and too expensive. But we were ignored. And now we know it is too big, too fast and it is too expensive."

Mr. McConachie lost the nomination the first round of balloting, and Mrs. Fuller was ousted on the second ballot in a contest with Mr. Miller. The ballots were destroyed and no count was given.

Fun at Turkey Pt.

In the Southwestern Region of Ontario there are 13 provincial parks. Of these 13 provincial parks only four remain as Natural Environment Parks: Turkey Point, Rondeau, Pinery and Cyprus Lake.

In the midst of the commercialities of Simcoe, Delhi, Ports Dover and Rowan, lies the 782 acre Turkey Point Provincial Park, preserved for its natural and historical significance. Being the largest of the three parks in the area a substantial summer staff is essential. Six Experience '75 students have been hired to perform the job.

Activities for this summer include a daily children's program headed by two area students from Conestoga's College Early Childhood Education Program. For the more industrious males of the group an environmental enhancement program includes constructing 150 new picnic tables, preparing beaches for the weekend crowd and maintaining the park.

Herb Hilder, coordinator for the summer program, has the students intermingled into the various programs for a greater appreciation and understanding of the park.

To make this summer both educational and entertaining for the curious camper, evening programs are held every Saturday night and on a holiday weekend both Saturday and Sunday nights. The programs are presented in the maintenance barn equipped with a film screen and other audio-visual phenomena. A display centre has also been set up in the barn (an antique in itself) to display the artifacts of pottery, shipwrecks, and pictures significant of the areas colorful history. The display centre's collection will increase this summer with new findings from an archaeological dig conducted by archeological students from the Ministry of Culture and Recreation. Experience '75 students will also gain a knowledge of the area's oldest history by aiding the professionals in survey and maintenance jobs.

Recreation facilities are abundant at Turkey Point Provincial Park. The Ministry of Natural Resources operates a nine-hole course at reasonable rates and any naturalists appetite will be satisfied on the Lookout Bluff Trail. A ten-mile bicycle route - The Norfolk Pioneer's Bicycle Route also covers some of the areas natural and human historical importance.

A recreational playground is set up in the park and children can be what they will on various creations.

Turkey Point Provincial Park has its summer in full swing for your tent or trailer so if you're heading up for the weekend, the site you want will be found with an early start.

Farm Safety Week

The period July 25 to 31 has been designated National Farm Safety Week and is sponsored by the Canada Safety Council in co-operation with Agriculture Canada. This year both the Council and the Ministry wish to draw to the attention of the farm worker a very important aspect of safety - personal protective equipment.

The farmer should consider the use of adequate personal protective equipment not only for humane reasons but also to minimize time losses and the expenses of injuries.

Almost 60 per cent of work injuries to farm family members or employees result in two or more days of lost time. With an estimated 24,000 disabling injuries occurring each year the loss of production and income is considerable not to mention the pain and inconvenience.

Courtland

Mary Ann Millen Of Cultus is visiting with her aunt, Mrs. Shirley Millen for a week.

Margaret Teasel was a guest at the Millen residence on Sunday.

The farmer should determine the need for personal protective equipment, select the proper type for the hazards involved and train employees and family workers to know why, where and how to wear and care for it.

Personal protective equipment is meant to be used only when it is impossible or impracticable to eliminate a hazard. Wearing this equipment tends to prevent injury but the hazard remains a potential danger. It is better to remove a hazard than to try to safeguard against it by means of special clothing or equipment.
