

Advanced Studies at Princeton, N.J., Later, Fr. O'Donnell went to the University of Cracow, Poland, to study with a distinguished Professor, then later to the University of Breslau, Poland to study with another distinguished Professor there, - then to Paris for three years and later returned to Toronto as a Professor. Now, he is a retired ~~xxxx~~ Professor (no longer teaches), but has many other things to do. One recent duty was to give talks at the University of California. His retirement has given him a number of advantages, ^{offici} but he still works out of the Pontifical Institute of Mediaeval Studies in Toronto.

Six Sisters of Walpole entered the Religious Life: Anne & Matilda Heenan, who were in the St. Joseph Order, Hamilton, Agnes & Grace Heenan who were Sisters of the Precious Blood Order in Toronto, - Belle Devine, Sister Delphine, of St. Joseph Order, Hamilton, Miss Fitzgerald, Sister Dorothea, with the St. Joseph's Order, Hamilton, Lillian O'Hara, Sister Mary of the Rosary, Hamilton.

The Priests who have been in charge of St. Anne's, Walpole; - Father O'Shea, Fr. V. Bardeau & Fr. E. Laussie. (Walpole was under the charge of Cayuga for this period.

From 1895 on-- under the charge of Caledonia, the Priests were:- Frs. Lynch, A.C. Walter, I.S. Gehl, J. M. Cleary, J. J. Traynor, B. A. Harris, J. B. Ryan, P.J. Boeddendistel, C.O. Day, G. Beck and at the present time- Fr. G. Wubbels and Fr. G. Raymakers.

The congregation of St. Anne's has increased greatly during the last few years, with several new families moving into the district. During the summer months, the church is filled with the early Sunday morning worshippers, as many are cottagers from nearby Lake Erie.

St. Anne's, Walpole with its lovely red carpet throughout and its stained glass windows is a landmark, brightened by a "Dusk 'til Dawn" light in front. The church is situated at the intersection of No. 3 Highway and the Sandusk Road in the newly formed Region of the City of Nanticoke, formerly known as the Township of Walpole.

March 1976.

ST. ANNE'S CHURCH, WALPOLE
Special services and a Parish Dinner will mark the One
Hundredth Anniversary next week. 1966