

L. Joyd

T. Menzies

Preppen W. Hodge

Wom
The Colom
friendly asso
years have
with men's of fishing me
irrigation pro
nical workers
men) and the
tion services.
Understand
be achieved
are able to te
feeling towa
effort to sho
have sisters
men have b
Malaya whe
been underta
Women's In Wales. The TEMPLER, w
attempts to b
by Communi
the war, and went out fro
work started.
It was a
organizer, fr
country whe
the West.
women in M
laboring wit
fields and b
other hand, t
woman a g
courage to
of her home.
Now there
where wom
They find the sewing and adults' cloth lessons, are
and they sho
artistry in de
played partic
European cal
ing vegetable favored. But Canada s
Women's Ins
movement g
need. No d
predicted fai
but from ha
towards Ma
tested instru

Programme

Friday, August 21st: "CANADA DAY"

Afternoon Session, 1.30 p.m.

1. Organ Music—Kathleen Stokes.
2. "Women's Institute Ode"—sung to the tune of Auld Lang Syne. (Words on Page 8.)
3. The Mary Stewart Collect—recited in unison. (Words on Page 8.)
4. Opening Address by Mrs. Hugh Summers, President, Federated Women's Institutes of Canada.
5. Greetings (French) by Mme. J. B. Cadrin, President, Les Cercles de Fermières.
6. Introduction of Provincial Presidents.
7. Official Opening of "CANADA DAY" by The Honourable Stuart S. Garson, Minister of Justice, Attorney General and Solicitor General, Canada.
8. Junior Farmers' Choir of Oxford County, conducted by Henry A. Clark:
"Dear Land of Home"—Sibelius ("Finlandia").
"Canada, Dear Canada"—Henry A. Clark (composed especially for this occasion).
"One World"—Geoffrey O'Hara.
9. Greetings from Delegates of the Nations represented at the A.C.W.W. Conference.
10. Organ Solo by Kathleen Stokes:
Medley of Strauss Waltzes.
11. Address by Mrs. Raymond Sayre, President, The Associated Country Women of the World.
12. Introduction of new A. C. W. W. President.
13. Junior Farmers' Choir of Oxford County:
"Rolling Down to Rio"—Edward German.
"Come to the Fair"—Easthope Martin.
"Oklahoma"—Richard Rodgers.

Mrs. Robert A. McCarter Highly esteemed resident of Jarvis and a native of Rockford, Townsend Township, who observed her 83rd birthday on Sunday.
—Photo by Moore.

Programme

14. "O CANADA," sung by audience and choir. (Words on page 8.)
15. Organ Music—Kathleen Stokes.

(Supper Interval: 4.30-7 p.m.)

Evening Session, 7 p.m.

16. Pageant, "DOMINION OF DESTINY," a dramatic and musical presentation of Canada's story.
(Detailed programme of Pageant, pages 4-7)

Saturday, August 22nd:

2 p.m.—Condensed Programme of "CANADA DAY," open to the general public.

1. Organ Music—Kathleen Stokes.
2. Opening Remarks by Mrs. Hugh Summers, President, Federated Women's Institutes of Canada.
3. Greetings (French) by Mme. J. B. Cadrin, President, Les Cercles de Fermières.
4. Junior Farmers' Choir of Oxford County, conducted by Henry A. Clark.
"Canada, Dear Canada"—Henry A. Clark.
"One World"—Geoffrey O'Hara.
"Come to the Fair"—Easthope Martin.
5. Address by Mrs. Raymond Sayre, President, The Associated Country Women of the World.
6. Greetings from Delegates and the new A.C.W.W. President.
7. Organ Solo by Kathleen Stokes:
"Blue Tango."
(Intermission)
8. Pageant, "DOMINION OF DESTINY."

The Jarvis Women's Institute and its products—brought the ladies up to date on many new developments. Mrs. Stan Mitchell convened the program with Mrs. G. Taylor-Munro giving the motto: "Homes are the greenhouses where citizens are started." Mrs. Myrtle Johnson prepared paper on "past and present industries in Haldimand County," which was the highlight of the afternoon. Mesdames Marr, Ilwood and Belbeck gave a sumo of their bus trip to the Canadian East Coast, Boston the World's Fair. Mrs. Marr spoke on Current Events and conducted the program.

Principal Mrs. Mary H. who gave a thought-provoking address, stating that in era—knowledge has outstripped wisdom—stuffing children with facts is not enough. Learning must be adapted to the times. Touching on the science of numeration, Mrs. Hazlett for her splendid talk. Mrs. Joseph Harrison gave timely current event. The lunch committee served refreshments and a social hour was spent with the teachers. The October meeting will be held at the Jarvis Women's Institute on Wednesday evening of last week. The meeting was held in the Christian Education Building of Wesley United Church. Mrs. Evan Higgins, President, was in the chair with Mrs. Wm. Blake as secretary. Note was made of the West Haldimand Fall Conference to be held at York United Church, September 20th at 1.30 P.M. Final arrangements were made for completing the exhibit to be shown at Caledonia. The roll call was "Your Favourite Book or Magazine." Mrs. W. J. Bailor convened the program and the splendid motto: "Homes are the greenhouses where citizens are started." The October meeting will be held at the Jarvis Women's Institute on Wednesday evening of last week. The meeting was held in the Christian Education Building of Wesley United Church. Mrs. Evan Higgins, President, was in the chair with Mrs. Wm. Blake as secretary. Note was made of the West Haldimand Fall Conference to be held at York United Church, September 20th at 1.30 P.M. Final arrangements were made for completing the exhibit to be shown at Caledonia. The roll call was "Your Favourite Book or Magazine." Mrs. W. J. Bailor convened the program and the splendid motto: "Homes are the greenhouses where citizens are started."

GUESTS AT JARVIS