LOCAL DAIRY WILL CEASE OPERATION OCTOBER 1ST

Mr. Lea Marshall, President of the Marshall Dairy Ltd., has announced this week that the local plant will cease operations on September 30th. The plant, equipment and routes have been purchased by Villa Nova Milk Products, located at Villa Nova.

In announcing the sale Mr. Marshall pointed out that the pricing policies of Government agencies made it impossible to operate except at a loss and that this has resulted in the closing of many plants. He also said that in order to keep the plant in modern operating order would require a capital expenditure of at least $150,000 and that this was impossible under present circumstances. The Villa Nova Co-Operative, he said, is a new up-to-date plant and is equipped to handle the production of the products that have been supplying milk to his Dairy.

This year marks sixty-three years Mr. Marshall has spent in the Dairy Business. He first started out as a Cheesemaker and later purchased his own Creamery at Black Creek. In 1924 he moved to Jarvis to manage the new (present) plant of Caledonia Creameries Ltd. The business was later sold to the Borden Co. During this period Mr. Marshall remained as Manager. The Borden Co. sold the business to the newly formed Marshall Dairy Limited January 1, 1933 and it has been operated as such since that time.

The Marshall Dairy Ltd. will not relinquish its Charter and will dispose of present inventories of Milk Powder over the next several weeks and will utilize the present facilities in so doing.

The Villa Nova Milk Products representatives have been interviewing producers and customers over the past week and feel that a smooth transfer of the services will take place at the end of the month. Many of the key employees of the plant will be absorbed in the Villa Nova operation.

LIONS PLAN TO EXTEND VICTORIA DAY CELEBRATION

May 24th, commemorating the birthday of good Queen Victoria, has been Jarvis' day for many years. It is an annually celebrated celebration that attracts hundreds of people.

Lion Chief Drew Williamson hopes, this year, to add some depth to the occasion to coincide with the Centennial spirit of the Nation. With this in mind, plans are underway to hold a Centennial dance on Saturday night, prior to the celebration on the following Monday. The Lions, too, are hopeful that the local churches will now living in other jurisdictions, and urge them to return to their hometown for the week end to participate. Each church, it is hoped, will hold a special service (in their own church) on Sunday morning and to recognize those who have returned for the week end. On Sunday afternoon it is tentatively planned to hold a beef barbecue at the park when, again, out-of-town friends can mingle with the friends of their youth.

Then, of course, the usual Parade, Sports, Dancing, Amateur Show and Fireworks will be featured on Monday. All citizens are urged to contact relatives, or former friends away from Jarvis, to return for this special occasion. The Lions Club will endeavor to provide the main entertainment and this re-union can be a vital part of our contribution to Canada's Centennial.

WALPOLE CENTENNIAL COMMITTEE PLAN PROJECTS

Projected plans for the observance of Centennial year are receiving the attention of the Walpole Centennial Committee, under the chairmanship of Gordon Miller and the Jarvis Committee, under the chairmanship of Arthur Blight. The two groups are working in close co-operation.

Special event days will be celebrated in four local communities during the year. The first is planned at Jarvis in conjunction with the annual May 24th celebration; Hagersville will tie in with their July 1st celebration; Nanticoke is making plans to celebrate on July 15th, followed by Selkirk on August 12th.

Large bonfires, throughout the township, will signal the start of Centennial Year. These will be lit at 9 P.M. on December 31. Other projected events include a School Fair after the pattern of those that were largely discontinued a quarter of a century ago; a sugar bush tour with pancakes served on the spot; a mammoth display of antiques based on the collection owned by Hugh Clark, of Hagersville.

An interdenominational church service is tentatively set for Sunday, July 2. The assistance of the Clergy of the area is being sought by the committee in finalizing arrangements for this service.

And, of course, there will be a beard growing contest and present indications are there will be hundreds of contestants. Donald Duxbury is developing the plans for this project and his committee consists of Ernest Craddock, Jack Martin, Gordon Miller, Harvey Bassindale and Keith Phibbs.

Progress of the Centennial Committees to date would indicate no lack of festivities in this community for Centennial year.

WALPOLE CENTENNIAL COMMITTEE MEETING HELD

The Walpole Centennial Committee was joined by the principals and representatives of the five schools in the Township for their February meeting: the North and South Walpole Schools, the Dutch Reform School, the Jarvis School and the Roman Catholic School. The School Boards were also represented by the Board Chairman or other representative. The purpose of this meeting was to form a Committee for the School Fair for Centennial Year, to be held in the fall.

Mr. William Snowden was elected Chairman of the School Fair Committee and much discussion was held regarding the arranging of a School Fair, prizes, etc.

It was learned that there were five bonfires and social evenings held throughout the Township on December 31st and that there are between 200 and 250 men participating in the beard growing contest. Further plans for the July 2nd Congregation Service will be made at a meeting on February 14th, to which all the ministers of the township are being invited.

Plan to attend the Maple Sugar-off Day to be held later in March—a visit to a sugar bush and a pancake dinner too, with probably a ride in a horse-drawn sleigh.

WEST HALDIMAND W.I. FALL CONFERENCE

The Willow Grove Women's Institute was hostess for the Fall Conference of the West Haldimand Women's Institute held in the Anglican Church in Caledonia. After a few introductory remarks by the president, Mrs. Harcourt Kern, the meeting was opened by the Institute Ode and the Lord's Prayer. Mrs. Stanley Farrell, the President of Willow Grove W.I. welcomed the guests and Mrs. George Smith read the minutes and gave the financial statement.

Mr. Ken Best, Haldimand Ag. Rep. brought greetings from his department. He asked the Institute for their continued financial support of the 4-H Clubs. He also spoke of the safety program for the County and asked each Institute to elect a safety convener. Husbands and families are to be urged to participate in the farm management Association.

Sharon McMonan and Bill Elder were named winners of the Haldimand County scholarships. Miss Betty Baiden, Home Economist for Haldimand, told what plans had been made for the 4-H girls and women in the fall and winter courses. She invited all to attend the Caledonia Fair and see the 4-H and Homemaking Exhibits.

A Senior Training School for Block Printing will be held on October 18 to 21 inclusive. This is a two-day course but there will be two classes held.

A letter was received from Grandview Lodge thanking the Institutes for their gifts at Christmas. The West Haldimand Institute are to entertain the inmates each fourth Wednesday and supply entertainment, cake and ice cream.

Mrs. Keen announced that $50.91 was collected in the "Pennies for Friendship" project. Caledonia W.I. are to be the hostesses for the Spring Conference.

Each Branch is to be asked to send in one complete program to the planning committee. The branches and the month they are responsible for are as follows: Springvale—June; Willow Grove—August; Caledonia—September; Clanbrassil—October; Garnet—November; Hagersville—December; Holmes—January; Jarvis—February; Lambs' Corners—March; Healy—April; Naber—May; Sanduski—June.

Our area convention is to be held at Prudhomme's on October 24th and 25th. A delightful break in the season was the piano playing (continued on page four)

One of Walpole township's historic sites opened up for the summer season on Sunday. Wilson MacDonald Memorial School will now be open every Sunday and holidays through the summer until Thanksgiving Monday. The old schoolhouse will also be open by appointment. (Staff Photo)

County Museum Plans Opening

Plans are well in order for the Haldimand County Museum Board's opening of the new museum in the County Court House Park at Cayuga on Sunday afternoon, June 17, at 2:30 p.m.

The many interesting articles seem to have taken on new historical significance in their new location in the spacious cases. The county museum seems to have "held together," so to speak, over the years and at last there is a building with interesting architecture and a beautiful setting along the banks of the Grand River.

County Council.

Plan to attend the opening and spend the afternoon in the park. For this special occasion, the beautiful historic church of St. John the Divine, which is adjacent to the park, will be open to the public and your opportunity to see the historic windows and Old English architecture.

The Museum Board are giving the honour to our first lady Warden in County History, Mrs. Lorna Miller, to be the Chairman for the opening. The guest speaker will be Mr. V. N. Styrm of Toronto Museum Advisor for the Province of Ontario. Mr. Styrm was invited many months ago to be a part of the pre-planning of the museum under the direction of the Administration Committee of
