

NOT MANY OF THESE ARE LEFT--

Left to Right: W. J. Snowden, Chairman of the School Fair Committee; Canon E. A. Brooks and Gordon Miller, Chairman of the Walpole Centennial Committee. One of the highlights of the Walpole Centennial School Fair last Friday was the dedication of a millstone, once vital to the welfare of South Walpole residents, that served to produce flour at a Mill on Nanticoke Creek. The Millstone was presented by Messrs. William J. and Hubert I. Snowden, and was accepted by the Walpole Centennial Committee as an authentic piece of History. On Friday last, at the School Fair dedicated by Canon E. A. Brooks, and will now be placed in front of the Walpole Municipal Building as a lasting reminder of an instrument used to contribute to the health and welfare of the citizens of this community one hundred years ago.

Relic Of The Past

An old mill stone, found recently in Nanticoke Creek and believed to be 150 years old, was dedicated at the Walpole Township public schools fair held at Jarvis. Nearly 1,300 children attended the fair and six hundred entered exhibits. Inspecting the mill stone are, left to right: Gordon Miller, Jarvis public school trustee; Canon E. A. Brooks, and William J. Snowden, chairman of the fair.

Janet Copeland Laurel Brown Girls taking course - Laurel Brown, Janet Copeland, Janet Haggett, Sandra Jones, Audrey Simons - Leaders - Mrs. Guy Leathem Mrs. Robert Lysch

Institute Float - May 24th, 1954 - Girls - Helen Broughty, Laurel Brown, Lois Fleming, Janet Haggett, Jean Davidson, Sandra Jones

not kneeling
Agel Smuck
Janet Church
is a. Miller
non R. Bailey
y Bartlett
ren. Elizabeth Church
rd Bartlett

Fls Porter